Armed Bandit Robs Station

Burglary Victim Who Surprised Thieves Knocked Unconscious

An armed robber held up a service station and burglars knocked unconscious an apartment resident who surprised them in his living room during a series of weekend crimes reported in Quad-City area authorities.

A lone bandit escaped, with $46 in an armed robbery at the new Clark service station, Nameki road and Washington avenue, at 5:15 a.m. Saturday.

Wielding a small blue steel gun, the bandit forced the attendant, Bruce Heidemann, 37, of Belleville, to hand over the $38 he had in his pockets and then forced him to walk to a parked truck where Donald Ald, 19, of Caseyville, was sitting inside. Ald told to empty his pockets and gave the robber $6.

The gunman then ordered both youths to enter the station, warning them, "Touch no alarm." He instructed Heidemann to unlock the office, but the attendant said only the manager had a key. Both youths then were instructed to leave the building and walk south on Nameki road.

They crossed the driveway and ducked into a yard. After they heard a car drive away, Heidemann ran back to the station to telephone police.

Both victims told officers the bandit fled in a dark green or black 1967 auto. He was described as being about 25 years old, five feet eight inches tall and having light hair. The gunman was wearing a long-sleeved green and green clothing, including a green corduroy hat, they said.

Surprised Thieves, Slugged Burglars broke into the apartment of Melvin W. Heiser, 3917 Gaslight Walk, early Saturday morning and knocked Heiser unconscious when he surprised them in his living room. Pontoon Beach police said Heiser was sleeping and was awakened by a noise. He was struck as he walked into the living room, police reported.

Heiser received treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital for a cut over his left eye. The thieves escaped with an 18-inch portable television set.

Burglars removed a door glass to gain entrance at the Sidener Supply Co., 1101 Nineteenth street, and stole a $75

Labor Problems Mount as Talks End in Deadlock

Mounting labor problems confronted the Quad-City area today as negotiations in two major strikes, involving nearly 1800 workers, went into a new deadlock—and contract talks in a third area strike broke off Thursday afternoon with no indications of progress.

Discussions are continuing meanwhile between officials of General Steel Industries, Inc. and representatives of United Steelworkers of America, Local 1022, in an effort to draw up a new contract before the old one expires at 11:59 p.m. Friday.

Clyde Boyd, USWA subdistrict representative, said meetings are scheduled at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. Friday in the Labor Temple in which steelworkers will vote on a company offer which is expected to be drafted by that time.

Boyd said the contract at General Steel Industries involves 1400 to 2000 steelworkers, depending upon work volume. He said negotiations are being conducted on a daily basis about a new contract proposal is completed.

No further contract discussions are scheduled today in the strike of nearly 1000 members of International Chemical Workers Union Local 50 at the blast, uranic plant of Granite City Steel Co. A deadlock in negotiations also was reported in the strike of more than 700 steelworkers at the Madison plant of Dow Chemical Co.

Chemical Workers representatives and Granite City Steel officials met last Wednesday and Thursday in an effort to resolve a dispute over wage demands by the union. The meeting, held in offices of the U.S. Mediation, a n.o. Conciliation Service in St. Louis, broke off with no progress and no arrangements for another meeting.

Dow Meet Breaks Up Similarly, a U.S. mediation contract discussions yesterday. Dow officials and USWA representative broke off last Tuesday without progress. The dispute at Dow involves nearly 2000 workers.

Three Recovered

6 Autos Stolen in Area, One Stripped and Burned

Another stolen car was stripped and burned by thieves during the weekend as a mounting number of car thefts and auto loadings was reported to Quad-City authorities. Six cars were stolen, three of which were recovered, and two cases of thefts from cars were reported.

A 1964 auto belonging to Benne Reynolds, St. Louis, was found about 5:30 a.m. Sunday by Madison police in a field south of Madison, where the car had been stripped and burned. The auto had been stolen between 2 and 4:30 a.m. from the 800 block of Jackson street, West Madison.

A new, two-door foreign auto with Belgium license plates was stolen Saturday from Second street and Madison avenue, it was reported to Madison police by the owner, an Army Depot soldier, Floyd Shaw of 151 Second street.

A 1967 four-door auto, stolen in St. Louis county Oct. 19, was found by Madison police at about 5:15 p.m. Friday. The car

Education Foremost

Grigsby Praises Granite Cityans' Devotions

Dr. Paul A. Grigsby, former Granite City superintendent of schools and now director of student teachers at Central Methodist College, Fayette, Mo., renewed many of his longstanding friendships here yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by Mrs. Grigsby.

The occasion was the dedication ceremony for the new Paul A. Grigsby junior high school at Pontoon Beach attended by more than 300 persons.

Dr. Grigsby, who was school district superintendent from 1950 to 1958 and before that superintendent of the high school district for 17 years, praised school officials and the people of the Granite City school district for their ability to get things done.

He added that with such devoted interest in education, the local school district should have no difficulties in the future.

Modest Acceptance "I'm proud of this honor you have given me and my family in naming this school after me. I accept on behalf of the devoted people who made all of this possible."

In reviewing his years in Granite City, Grigsby said he has never stopped telling others of the tremendous accomplishments of "the nationally known Granite City school system—the way the school officials and school staffs and the people co-operated in gaining approval for the first bond issue back in the 1920s."

"They, too, deserve a share of the honor."

"It does me good to see the familiar faces of my former students who now are members of the PTA and the retired teachers who are here. Those things get next to you."

"Society is moving at a fast, fast pace and it will come with that pace and the pace of education will be vastly different... we'll need to have knowledge increased by twofold."

"The world will go forward only from what boys and girls learn."

Standing Ovations Dr. Grigsby was given standing ovations by the audience upon his introduction by School Superintendent B. J. Davis and upon the conclusion of his short talk.

Grigsby said he was so impressed by the new junior high building and with his reception that he decided to speak from his heart rather than a prepared text.

Also on the program were Wilbur R. L. Trimpe, county superintendent of schools, and Dr. E. W. Walton, who gave the invocation.

Price pointed to the basic differences of the philosophies of the two major parties in urging adoption of a Democratic administration in Washington.

The crowd dwindled somewhat when the delayed arrival of Miss Furness and Mrs. Wirtz lengthened into 90 minutes. Granite City Mayor Donald Party, who appeared at the campaign trailer with Venice Mayor John E. Lee shortly after 10 a.m., was forced to

Two Others Recovered A 1968 two-door model auto stolen from Andrew Zlatz, Jennings, Mo., between 11 p.m. Friday and 3:30 a.m. Saturday in Madison was recovered about half an hour after the theft was reported. Police said the car was reported stolen from 13th street and Madison at 4:45 a.m.

Erma Jackson, 200 Allen street, Eagle Park Acres, reported to Madison police at 9:30 p.m. yesterday that her 1959 model auto had been stolen about half an hour earlier. The car was found in the Eagle Park area at 10:35 p.m.

The 1960 model auto of S. D. Spires, St. Louis, was stolen in Venice about 3:40 a.m. yesterday from its parking place at Main and Bremen streets in Venice. The car was a maroon two-door.

A portable radio worth $30 was stolen from a car at 13th street and Madison at 4:45 a.m.

Children Among 11 Traffic Injuries

Area's Toll Reaches 24 Accidents; 3 Hurt in Single Mishap

Two children—one a pedestrian and the other a passenger in a car—were among 11 persons injured in a series of 24 accidents reported in the Quad-City area during the weekend. Three of the injured were hurt in one mishap.

Terry Fisher, 12, son of Mrs. Wanda Fisher, 2008 Harris street, Madison, suffered a broken femur to his left leg and abrasions to his head and left side about 3:15 p.m. Friday when he ran into the right front of an auto on Cambridge avenue a short distance south of Third street.

The motorist, Gary A. Davis, was traveling south at the time of the mishap.

The boy, a seventh grader at Madison junior high school, was knocked down by the car and was with his sister, Debra, 14, who was unhurt. The boy crawled to the curb after being knocked down by the car. He was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Child Hurt in Madison Shelley Heiny, 5, daughter of Harold Heiny, 24 Meadow Lark court, suffered minor injuries at 1:10 p.m. Thursday when a car driven by her father, Harold W. Rardin, Charleston, Ill., at Third street and McCambridge avenue in Madison. Police reported Rardin was headed north on McCambridge and was moving into the left turn lane in front of the Heiny car when the mishap occurred.

The Heiny car was damaged at the front and the Rardin car at the rear.

Three persons all in one car, suffered minor injuries Friday afternoon when the rear of their car was struck by another auto at Route 162 and Lake drive.

Dr. Grigsby was given standing ovations by the audience upon his introduction by School Superintendent B. J. Davis and upon the conclusion of his short talk.

Woman, 71, Dies in House Fire At Mitchell

Mrs. Minnie Depping Aided by Husband; Re-enters for Papers

Burns and smoke inhalation caused the death Friday evening of 71-year-old Mrs. Minnie K. Depping, who had entered her blazing home at 540 Chouteau avenue, Mitchell, after having been led to safety by her husband, Conrad, 84.

Mr. Depping, who was given treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital for first degree burns to his forehead and for shock, had gone for help, and upon his return discovered his wife had gone into the house. He made one attempt to rescue her and then was held back by neighbors.

The fire broke out in the living room of the four-room frame house about 8:30 a.m. Friday, apparently caused by an oil space heater, Mitchell Fire Chief Lee Paul reported.

He said the interior of the house was a mass of fire with flames shooting out the windows as firemen arrived on the scene.

The firefighters went from window to window in a search for Mrs. Depping, who had been arriving home from Granite City when the fire broke out. "I heard a boy about 12 or 14 climb in a window, but he couldn't find her," Chief Paul said.

Boy Climbs Inside The boy was Donnie Woods, 14, son of Rev. and Mrs. Woods, 629 Ashland avenue, an eighth grader at Grigsby junior high school.

Hartford General Baptist Church, said he and his family were arriving home from Granite City when a boy ran up and said there was a house ablaze on Chouteau avenue.

Plaque at Hospital to Honor Area Men Killed in Vietnam

Unveiling Ceremony Today

A bronze memorial plaque—dedicated to Quad-City area servicemen who lost their lives in Vietnam—will be unveiled in a ceremony at 5:30 p.m. today in the lobby of St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The plaque is being donated by Joseph Glik, president of Glik's Department stores and a member of the hospital's Advisory board, to honor the memory of his father, the late Morris Glik.

With the plaque, Glik is arranging to establish a continuing memorial fund for the deceased local servicemen with whom he has used to furnish the intensive care unit in the new wing to be built at the United Church of Christ, and the benediction was by Lowry Sutherland.

Following the ceremony, refreshments were served in the school cafeteria by the PTA and members of the new building with 35 members of the student council serving as guides. In charge of the service were Mrs. Frances Chast, Mrs. Sharon Littlejohn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brandon, Mrs. Rhonda Reynolds, Mrs. Joyce Delour and Mrs. Maxine Grissman.

On display at the podium in the gymnasium was a bust of Dr. Grigsby, made by a high school student several years ago. "I will be

4 Plead Innocent In Shell Oil Co. Case, Arraigned

Four men charged with theft of gasoline from the Shell Oil refinery at Wood River, including a refinery employee from Granite City, pleaded innocent during arraignment in Madison county circuit court Thursday.

Not guilty pleas also were entered by eight other defendants involved in area crimes. They had been indicted by the Madison county grand jury earlier this month.

Charged in the Shell theft are Herman Wilson, 37, of 2208 Nevada avenue, and James Riley, 36, of Wood River, another employee, who face two conspiracy and one theft count; Cecil Heuch, Belleville truck driver, indicted for conspiracy; and William Waters, Jacksonville truck driver, charged with conspiracy and theft.

A fifth person, a Wood River gasoline station owner who had been arrested, was not indicted. He testified before the grand jury.

Previous testimony showed that Wilson and Riley allegedly had shut off meters which recorded amounts of gasoline entering truck. Plant security guards broke the alleged theft during last June after making out load tickets.

Other arraignments were held for Ray Howland, 23, of 1437 Fourth street, Madison, and Earl Sidney Davis, 25, of 1806 First street, East Madison, charged with burglary on a complaint filed by William Nichols of Bend road last August.

David Farley, 18, of 2015 Washington avenue, and Michael S. Dipe, 16, of Granite City, who was certified as an adult, charged in the strongarm robbery of Wiley Sexton, 2038 Bryan avenue, last May 21.

Jewel Dandridge, 37, of 100 Hill street, Eagle Park Acres, and Joe King, 49, of East St. Louis, charged with auto theft, Sept. 9 in Venice.

Virgil T. Hayes, 18, of Granite City, charged with burglary at Lake school on Aug. 28.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Isaac of Madison, charged with aggravated battery in the beating of Mrs. Lee Ethel White of Venice on July 27.

Charges against three area defendants were dismissed or removed from the docket.

They are Roger Veinovich, 19, of 1937 Grand avenue, charged with theft of four-barrel carburetors and engine heads from the J. & J. Speed shop last May; James Leroy Leles, 23, of 2102a Nevada avenue, charged with forgery last month; and Dandridge, charged with robbery.

Shoplifter Fined $35
Alicia Graves, 2982 Denver street, was arrested on a shoplifting charge of theft of less than $50 at the Kroger store at 11-40 a.m. Friday. She pleaded guilty and was fined $35 by Magistrate William Johnson.

Alassi President-Elect Of Ill. Art Educators

Eugene I. Alassi, Granite City school district art education consultant, was elected as the president-elect of the Illinois State Art Education Association at a meeting in Chicago last week. The group consists of over 1000 art educators in the state.

As president-elect, he will be program chairman for the 1969 convention in Champaign-Urbana next November. He also will be in charge of most legal procedures of the association.

Just after checking into his hotel on the first night of the convention, Alassi was strong-armed in a 17th floor corridor by a man weighing about 200 pounds, who robbed him of $124.

MHS Enrollment Normal; Officer Voting Explained

Madison high school enrollment was within 12 of the normal level Friday and returned to normal today after a group of students missed classes Thursday afternoon in a disagreement and misunderstanding over handling of class of floor voting.

Basis of the dispute was an unintentionally in a c u r t e method of tallying votes. The count in original balloting has been corrected, altering the sophomore and senior results. An explanation was given over the public address system Friday morning, with home room teachers then answering questions from students.

Since no ties actually occurred on senior officers, as had been indicated by the faulty count, a second round of votes will not be counted.

Acting Principal Richard Brown estimated the number in the walkout as less than 200 and said he is encouraging increased reliance by students on their student government as an alternate course of action in the future.

Previously composed of the 16 MHS class officers, the student council has been expanded this term to include a representative from each of the 31 home room classes.

MRS. JOHN G. LEVY JR., who was married Friday evening at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Venice. She is the former Delores McClanahan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McClanahan, 2722 Harding avenue.

Miss Delores McClanahan, John Levy Jr. Wed Friday

St. Mark's Catholic Church in Venice was the scene of the wedding Friday evening of Miss Delores McClanahan, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McClanahan, 2722 Harding avenue, and John G. Levy Jr., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Levy Sr., reside at 121 Granville street, Venice.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock by the church basement. Miss Magdalene Levy was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Linda Daviny presided at the organ and accom- panied the soloist, Mrs. Lois Boyd.

A gown of white Chantilly lace over peau de sole was worn by the bride. The neck- line was high and trimmed with a wide ruffle of lace. The long sleeves were also trimmed at the hands with ruffles of lace. The modified Empire bodice had a tiny fabric bow in the front and hand covered buttons extended below the waistline in the back.

A full court train flowed from a bow of peau de sole with streamers to the edge of the train. A headpiece of petalled lace with each petal traced with seed pearls and crystals secured the bride's bouffant veil of illusion and she carried a cascade of white carnations with a touch of seafoam statice.

Miss Theresa Palczynski, a cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Sandy Parson, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. William Levy, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids.

Their gowns were made alike of royal purple velvet. They had low scoop necklines, mod- ified Empire waists and floor- length "A" line skirts with in- verted pleats, lilac satin open- ing wide at the hemline. The top of the skirts featured French bows of the lilac satin. Long sleeves tapered at the hands and headpieces were lilac satin bow loops, and mini- ature seed pearls secured to lilac veils.

They carried cascades of white carnations tipped with purple and purple streamers. A little flower girl, Linda Schneide, dressed like the older attendants, carried a basket of purple tinted pom poms. Darrell Pelzarian served as ring bearer.

Mr. Levy's attendants were Richard McIntosh, best man; Daniel Levy, a brother, Wayne Bahr, Mike Palczynski, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Richard Hale, an uncle of the bride, groomsmen and ushers.

The newlyweds will honeymoon in Jacksonville, Fla., when they return will reside in Granite City.

The former Miss McClanahan was graduated from Granite City high school. Mr. Levy is a graduate of the St. Genevieve, Mo., high school. Both are employed in St. Louis.

A rehearsal dinner was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Levy Sr. at their home in Venice.

es will lead the service of worship and the dedication of their projects. This year the projects include: the dedication of the children's garments suitable for use in Southeast Asia or Africa; gift certificates of $3.00 for blankets, fabrics for Vietnam, and general resources.

Participants in the worship service will include women from the following churches: Mt. Nebo Baptist, Sacred Heart Catholic, First Church of God, Madison United Presbyterian, Peace Lutheran, Friendship Baptist, Madison United Me- thodist and Bethel A.M.E. The choir of the latter church will provide the music.

An offering will be received at the meeting. It will be used for nutrition education in Haiti, Guatemala, the Delta of the United States, nutrition education at the Church Center at the UN, the youth campaign against world hunger, and Christian Causesways.

Refreshments are to be served following the meeting.

Calvary Baptist Girls Auxiliary Coronation

"Star Ideals" spelled out in large golden letters and sus- pended gold and silver stars with soft varicolored lighting set the atmosphere for a Girls Auxiliary coronation held at Calvary Baptist Church Sunday night.

Following an organ prelude, the congregation sang "We've a Story to Tell." Mrs. Ruth Moser presented "Follow the Stars," and Mrs. Lois Bowers was in charge of introduction of the program.

As the organist played, Re-becca Edwards, Robin Stanton, Michelle Edwards and Dorothy Mann, maidens, entered the court. Following the charge by Mrs. Ruth Moser, awards were presented by leaders, Mrs. Maxie Stamps and Mrs. Retha Tripp.

The organist played "Send the Light" as ladies-in-waiting Linda Grady, Christie Clark, Rebecca Burke, Kathy Morris, Cheryl Smith and Kathi Williams entered. Mrs. Moser gave the charge and Mrs. Stamps and Mrs. Tripp presented awards.

Receiving the princess award were Diane Moser and Elaine Harper.

Queens entered the court while Mrs. Jackie Holder, or- ganist, played "O Worship the King."

Nickie Keiffer was crown- bearer for Queen Debbie Borth, Yvonne Marie Dagon crown- bearer for Queen Colleen Dagon, Kathie Joyce for Queen Cynthia Bradley and David Marks for Queen Debra Marks.

Mrs. Moser presented the charges, followed by Mrs. Mar- tha Dey, Mrs. Mary Patterson, Mrs. Wanda Belcher and Mrs. Mabel Turnbull awarding the crowns.

The court arose as Queen-in-Service Pamela Ann Stamps entered. Following the charge by Mrs. Moser, the award was presented by Mrs. Turnbull, Women's Missionary Union-Di- rector.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Bowers, GA director for the past year. Stage decorations were designed and made by Mrs. Jeanette Deutschman.

Jamie Cornett, scepter bear- er, preceded Queen With Scep- ter Martha Cornett. The award of scepter was made by Mrs. Belcher.

Obtaining the step of Queen Regent were Diane Borth, with capebearer John Williams; Rhonda Miller, with capebearer Julie Mahaffey; and Virginia Wolf, with capebearer Kenna Jean Corzine.

Receiving the high honor of Queen Regent in Service was Janet Tripp, attended by Terri Holder. Janet presented a brief biographical sketch of a mis- sionary from Illinois.

The charge was made by Mrs. Moser. Girls Auxiliary director for the coming year, Mrs. Turn- bull presented a special award.

The girls were all in white dresses, with those of queen and higher rank wearing white for- mals and carrying a nosegay of yellow daisies. Girls in the court wore in the Girls Auxiliary colors of green and white with green skirts, white blouses and yellow and green ties.

At the close of the coronation, all lights were turned down as Miss Rhonda Miller, new Queen Regent, sang "Countless People Grope in Darkness." The girls on stage participated in a can- dlelight ceremony.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Bowers, GA director for the past year. Stage decorations were designed and made by Mrs. Jeanette Deutschman.

Garden Clubs of Area Hold 1968 President Council Day

Garden club presidents and past directors of District V, Garden Clubs of Illinois, Inc., were honored Thursday at the annual President Council Day luncheon at St. Peter United Church of Christ, 21st street and Cleveland Blvd.

Mrs. Fred Orr, president of the Cloverview Club which was host for the event, welcomed the group, and Mrs. B. C. O'Neill, also of Cloverview, gave the invocation. Mrs. John Jenkins served as general chairman.

Each president was given a corsage by her club, and a Halloween motif was used in the table appointments and throughout the room. Autumn flowers arranged in small pumpkins and placed on black mats served as centerpieces on the tables. They were made by the members of the host club. The noon luncheon was served by the women of the church.

Mrs. J. N. Fitzsimmons of the Cahokia club and director of the district, addressed the assembly of about 100 women and introduced the presidents of the 14 clubs, past directors and executive board.

The district was federated with Garden Clubs of Illinois in 1953 under the direction of Mrs. Carl Fiebel of East St. Louis; Mrs. Harry Rosinos, Edwardsville, staged the first flower show; from Belleville Mrs. Adolph Streck inaugurated President Council Day; Mrs. Stephen Shea introduced the first news letter; Mrs. William Klotz instituted the annual workshop; Mrs. Harold E. Wolfe had many national and state speakers and a cook book published during her term of office; with Mrs. William Stafford, East St. Louis, all clubs participated in a weekly radio broadcast and the first state meeting was held in St. Louis when Mrs. Arthur Fischer, Collinsville, was director.

The program chairman, Mrs. Stafford, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Edward Fisher of St. Louis, a well known lecturer and flower arranger.

In her program on "table settings," the speaker explained the proper coordination of china, glassware, and linens to give balance and rhythm with flower arrangements.

Six functional tables were displayed—a "Guest Breakfast," "Buffet Table," "Luncheon," "Patio," "Contemporary Thanksgiving" and "Christmas."

There were also four "Capable" or exhibition settings. Mrs. Fisher is a master judge a member and past president of the Webster Groves Garden Club, group nine, as well as the Webster Groves Association of Garden Clubs, and has served on the East Central District and Missouri State Garden Club boards.

Hostesses at the table settings from Cloverview club were Mrs. Kenneth Brokaw, Mrs. William Bradley and Mrs. Leo Roman.

Also present were Mrs. John Lentz, Mrs. Robert McCauley, and Mrs. George Knapp of Cloverview; Mrs. Earl Glenn, Mrs. C. E. East, Mrs. Mary Kristian, Mrs. Albert Malotki, Mrs. John Farrell and Mrs. Jerry Arbelter of the Gardenaires; and Mrs. Arthur Roman, Mrs. Abner Branding, Mrs. Bonard Maples, Mrs. John Lehman, Mrs. Delbert McKissick, Mrs. Marceline Jung and Mrs. W. G. Cooley of the Garden Study club.

MHS Romps Over Dupo 34-13

Madison's turned-on Trojan gridders ran and passed for 453 yards to knock off the unbeaten Dupo Tigers 34-13 on the local field Thursday night with the victory. MHS took over first place in the Midwestern Conference, and can assure at least a share of the title with one more win.

Following the usual game pattern, Madison fans saw a quick score by the opponents, when a Dupo rookie, Danny Thomas took the initial kickoff and ran 88 yards for a touchdown, aided by stellar blocking. Thomas was playing his first varsity game.

The extra point kick by Tiger Paul Weber was good, and in 10 seconds after the start of the game, the Trojans were behind 7-0.

But—the Trojans' came back—and came back hard to take over the lead before the first quarter ended.

A Trojan Custom

It's a Trojan custom to come from behind for conference victories.

The first touchdown went on the scoreboard a quarter pass from quarterback Jim Scott to left end Eddie Hilton. Harold James' kick for the extra point hit the crossbar and was waved off.

With four seconds left in the quarter, Scott went over on a three yard carry. The kick by James was good and put the first quarter score at 13-6—favor Madison.

While temperatures hovered at the 38-40 degree mark, the red-hot Trojans kept the ball rolling to score in each of the three remaining periods, and points.

Slight Handicap
Madison's first quarter scoring was handicapped by a fumble on the five yard line, recovered by Tiger Raymond Heibel, but the Dupo squad was able to work its way only to the seven before being forced to punt.

The Trojans, who kept the ball rolling throughout the game without any need to punt, worked their way from the Tigers' 45 in nine plays to set up the first score. In the move, James carried twice to pick up a total of 18 yards and Dale Clinton ran for three and garnered a pass for 29. That set up Scott's pass to Hilton.

Dupo's Tigers moved on six yards and punted to the Trojan 29. Five plays later, including a 23 yard carry by Clinton and a 45 yard pass to John Ervin, Scott went over on his three yard dash.

In the second quarter, Madison's touchdown was hit by Mike Tushy on another three yard run. It followed a nine-play drive from the Trojans 30. The Tigers were in possession on the Trojans 45 yard stripe when the half ended.

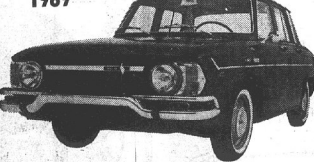

Tigers Get Assists
Third quarter play found the Dupo squad on the move after picking up an advantage with an out-of-bound kickoff that put the ball on their 40 yard line. They also got an added 30 yards from Trojan penalties.

POWERFUL RUNNING HALFBACK for the Madison Trojans Thursday evening was Harold James (18), who carried the ball for 178 yards in the Trojan victory over Dupo Tigers 34-13.

PURSING DUPO QUARTERBACK Dennis Mernick (38) and Trojan Dan Bargiel (80) and Phillip Davis (14) in action at the Madison field Thursday evening as the Trojans won 34-13.

It was an 11-play touchdown drive, with Tiger quarterback Dennis Mernick scoring on a three yard end run.

In the drive, Paul Weber tallied the only earned yardage on carries for 10 yards and an 18-yard pass. His attempted run for the extra point failed.

Not wanting to be kept off the scoreboard, the Trojans worked from their 20 on a touchdown and scored in the third quarter in six plays—the final one a 34 yard run by James.

Another MHS TD
The first play in the final period gave the Trojans their final touchdown with Dale Clinton going over on a two yard plunge. The Tigers had failed to pick up a first down in the final moments of the third quarter, and the Trojans had moved from the 48 to the two as the period ended.

Tiger gridders were ready to score again in the final period, but a pass attempt was intercepted in the end zone. The interception was negated on a holding penalty and then the Trojans were able to take over on the eight. They had worked to the 13 yard stripe as the game ended.

James not only kicked the four extra points points, but stepping in for injured halfback Duwayne Shaw, he also picked up 178 yards in 18 carries, including one touchdown on a 34 yard end run.

Trojans gridders and fans are looking forward to this week's game against Roxana and next week's tilt with Bethalto. Dupo has just one game remaining, and it's against the Highland Knights.

MHS Coach Alvin Vonder Haar took advantage of a week off to do some scouting and believes it paid off down the line. "I took eight of the boys to the Mater Dei-Dupo game last Saturday (Oct. 19), and we saw a lot and learned a lot."

The Trojans on 23 first downs amassed a total of 453 yards, including 288 rushing and 163 in the air with nine of 14 passes completed. MHS was clocked with two fumbles and lost 65 yards in penalties. None of the Trojan passes were intercepted. Dupo was credited with eight 1st downs to rack up 108 yards, with 30 by rushing and 78 by passing. Six of 30 pass attempts were completed and there was one interception. In three punts, the average was 41 yards, and Dupo lost 48 yards in penalties.

Braves Still Unbeaten, Down Collinsville 32-7

Coollidge Junior high school's football team defeated North of Collinsville 32-7 to clinch at least a tie for the Madison County Junior High School Conference Thursday night on the loser's field.

Undefeated in six games, the Coollidge Braves can end a perfect season and wrap up a title in their game at Prather Junior high school at 7 p.m. Thursday.

The Braves took charge early as on their third offensive play Joe Wallace swept left end with good blocking and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. The kick for the extra point was wide.

In the second quarter, Coollidge took over on the 50-yard line, and with a series of dives and cross backs, ran the ball to North's five where Mike Mullenix went over right tackle for another score. The extra point snap from center was bad, and the count was 12-0.

After an exchange of punts, North advanced to the Brave 19-yard line where the defense held. Wallace hit right tackle twice to bring the ball to the 50 and, after a series of sweeps and quick operators, it was third and nine on the North 12-yard line when Wallace hit Chuck Kriese with a pass to the two.

John Jennings went over left tackle for the TD, and Stan

Stadjuhar ran the extra point to make it 19-0 at the half.

John Stagner ran the second half kickoff 60 yards to the 30, and Mullenix swept right end and another touchdown. Jerry Duncan kicked the extra point and it was 26-0.

Jennings completed the scoring for the Braves when he intercepted a pass on his 35-yard line and outran defenders to the goal line. The snap from center for the extra point was bad.

North conducted a sustained drive of 80 yards for its score in the last quarter and, as the game ended, Coollidge had the ball on the one-yard line.

Warriors Drop Homecoming Tilt To Edwardsville Tigers-34-26

The Fighting Warriors of Granite City high lost their Homecoming game and another Southwestern Conference tilt when they bowed 34-26 to the Edwardsville Tigers here Friday night before a near capacity crowd.

The final score by the Tigers came in the last 30 seconds of play when the Warriors were behind by only one point—27-26.

Tiger fullback Keith Baer went over from the one yard line, after a sustained drive that started on the Tiger 15-yard stripe.

Back in action for the Warriors was halfback Jim Jones, who had suffered a knee injury in the Belleville East game in September. He carried 10 times for 54 yards.

Edwardsville had a 7-0 margin at the end of the first period and was ahead 14-12 at half-time. The third quarter score was 27-19, favoring the visiting Tigers who went on to win their first Conference game, having the Warriors winless. In the first period the Warriors failed a first down on runs by Dave Evans, Stan Corey and Roger Belshe, but then were stopped and driven back, with Dave Meizer punting for 38 yards.

The Tigers moved from their 14 to the Warrior 38, but had to punt, and the Warriors tried unsuccessfully to move the ball from their own six-yard stripe and punted to the Tigers 44.

After an incomplete pass, Tiger fullback Morris Bradshaw ran around the Warrior left end on a 56 yard sweep to score. Kevin Pratt hit for the extra point.

Corey Scores for GCHS.

In the second quarter, Stan Corey scored the first Warrior touchdown on a seven yard run. The extra kick by Jerry Monahan bounced off the goal post.

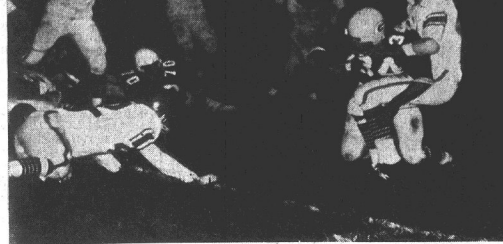

The goal—first in three weeks—charged up the Fighting Warriors, who shot through the Tiger line on the first play after kickoff and hit hard for a fumble that was recovered by Jim Caveness on the Edwardsville 28.

Driving hard, Warriors Jones and Corey put the ball on the one-yard stripe, and Corey Pat Peterson over for yard. The extra point try failed. The Warriors were in the lead.

The Tigers came back with Bradshaw again bearing the brunt of a ground attack, aided by Tigers Keith Baer and Church Miller. The Warriors failed a first down on runs by a 27-yard pass for the Tigers' second touchdown, and Pratt kicked the extra point to give the Tigers the 14-12 edge at half-time.

Scoring twice in the third period, the Tigers set up a four yard over-the-goal run by Baer with a 49-yard pass from Miller to left end Peterson.

Winners Block Punt. Not to be stopped at this point, the Warriors after an exchange, broke through the Tiger line and blocked a punt attempt, taking over the ball on the one-yard line. On the first play Evans went through the middle to score, and Monahan kicked the extra point.

TOUCHDOWN PLUNGE by Granite City high school Warrior Stan Corey (34) in a seven yard run around the left end to score the Warriors' first TD in three weeks. The Tigers won the game 34-26.

But the victory-hungry Tigers snapped back on the first play after the kickoff, as Bradshaw scampered around the Warrior left end for an 80 yard touchdown run.

Granite City came back in the fourth quarter, starting from their own 42 to go eight plays to score and get within one point of the Tigers. The play was set up with a 26 yard pass from Evans to Belshe, with Dave Meizer taking the ball over, but fumbling. The fumble was recovered by Warrior Corey in the end zone. Just 2:04 remained in the game, and the Tigers made their big down-the-field move for the final score.

Granite City racked up 12 first downs with a net of 245 yards, including 175 rushing and 70 passing. Three of 10 passes attempted were completed with 1 interception. There were five punts for a 33.6 yard average and no fumbles lost. Penalty yards totaled 45.

Edwardsville netted 413 yards with 16 first downs. Included were 337 yards rushing and 76 passing. Two of five passes were completed, and the Tigers lost the ball on two fumbles. Penalties totaled 35 yards.

Coolidge Wins Junior High Harrier Meet

Coolidge junior high school won the first Granite City inter-city cross-country meet Thursday at Granite City high school.

The Braves, with 124 points topped Grigsby with 196, Prather with 218 and Central with 292 to earn the first leg on a travelling trophy. Three wins in the annual meet will give a team permanent possession.

John Early of Coolidge won the race, finishing the 1.4-mile course in seven minutes and seven seconds.

Others in the top 10 were Bob Prell, Grigsby, 7:10; Mark Speer, Coolidge, 7:14; Dave Mathis, Prather, 7:21; Bruce Manning, Grigsby, 7:26; Mark Ortiz, Prather, 7:27; Larry Oker, Coolidge, 7:28; Dale Street, Grigsby, 7:32; Walter

Soccer Cougars Sock It to Greenville, 10-0

The Cougars of SIU-SW set a new scoring record here Saturday, downing Greenville College 10-0 in soccer. Their regular season record is now 7-0.

Any hope Greenville had of winning ended abruptly as SIU-SW scored five goals in the first quarter, added three in the second and one each in the third and fourth quarters.

The Cougars showed ball control along with a powerful scoring punch. They made 23 shots on goal in the first half and 17 in the second. Greenville managed only three shots on goal during the game. In the second half after Coach Bob Guelker had used all of his reserves in an effort to keep the score down.

Last year, Greenville defeated SIU-SW 2-1 in a second overtime period. Center forward John Carenza and inside right Tim Tighe scored two goals apiece in the SIU-SW runaway. Other Cougar tallies were by Fred Faucett, Jack Blake, Mickey Conway, Jim Kersting, John Delnowski and Mike McNamee.

This Friday, the Cougar will host Quincy College. Quincy is seeking its third consecutive National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics crown in soccer and is considered a major soccer power.

Coach Guelker said after the Greenville game, "We think we are ready for Quincy. We have improved enough to play in their league, and we look forward to the challenge. We half after them trouble and, with some breaks, we can win the match."

The Cougars are undefeated except for a pre-season exhibition loss to a touring team from Exeter College in England. This is their second season of intercollegiate soccer.

Prather Trips Grigsby 14-6 for 3rd Grid Win

Prather tripped Grigsby 14-6 for a Madison County Junior High School Football Conference victory Thursday night on the high school field.

The victory evened the record for the winners at three-and-a-half, though Coach Al Sonnenberg said it would have been five-and-one without a couple of fluke plays earlier in the season.

The loss left the Grigsby Gators with a one-four-and-one mark. Both teams close their season Thursday with Prather hosting league-leading Coolidge at 7 p.m. and Grigsby traveling to North of Alton for a 4 p.m. contest.

Terry Motes broke a well-played scoreless duel in the second quarter when he ran eight yards for a touchdown. Jim Forrester kicked the extra point.

Prather hit paydirt again in the fourth quarter when Greg Stanfill intercepted a pass on the Gator 11-yard line and carried it in. Forrester again kicked the extra point, his ninth of the season in 12 tries.

Coach Ron Yates Gators averted a shutout on a 20-yard pass play from Mark Koy to Charles Logas.

Danny Patterson rushed for 100 yards in 15 carries to lead the offense for the winners. It was the third game in a row in which he gained more than 100 yards.

Motes averaged 5.7 yards per carry, totaling 62 yards in 11 tries, and was effective at defensive end. Prather had a total of 200 yards rushing and 51 yards passing.

Ron Hall, Norris Egbert and Art Billick were rated as outstanding on defense by Coach Sonnenberg.

Students, Official Opposed to School Leaving Conference

The East St. Louis board of education has agreed to confer this week with a group of East St. Louis high school athletes who oppose withdrawing from the Southwestern Conference.

Acting on board instructions, Supt. Boyd Mitchell last week instructed High School Principal Leroy Duckworth to notify the conference that the school is dropping out after a 42-year membership, which included many athletic championships for East St. Louis.

Louis "P" Dehner, athletic director, has voiced hope that the decision will be reversed, commenting, "If the move would benefit Lincoln, I could see how they might go ahead with it, but it's not benefiting anyone."

The position being taken is that East St. Louis would not remain in the conference unless Lincoln of its district also was accepted.

The conference has rejected Lincoln and other applicants on the ground that it did not wish to be larger than seven schools due to the length of the conference schedules.

GCHS Ends Successful Cross-Country Season

The GCHS cross-country squad finished a successful season Saturday at Columbia as it placed sixth in district competition of the Illinois High School Association.

Belleville West won the meet with a score of 49, followed by Alton 66, Collinsville 117, Cahokia 136, Edwardsville 171, Granite City 177, Sparta 285, Mascoutah 239, Triad 288, Columbia 311, East St. Louis 382, Waterloo 383, Triad 387, DuPont 418, Lebanon 420, Brene Water Dei 448, O'Fallon 470, Highland St. Paul 513, Marissa 581, Highland 604 and Gilbert 675.

Bruce Ferry of Belleville West won over a 2.7-mile course in a time of 13:38.

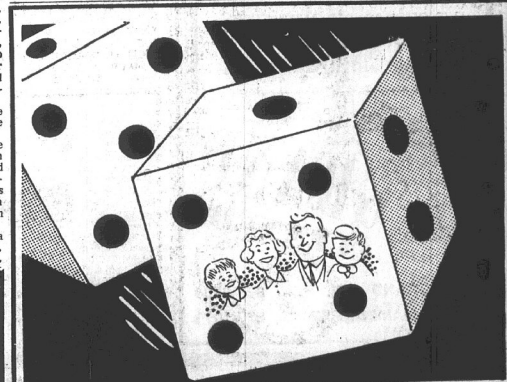

Granite City finishers were Ricky Rose 25th in 14:24, Dan Burris 32nd in 14:38, Harold Briggs 37th in 14:44, Steve Harris 39th in 14:55, Ralph Rojas 44th in 14:59, Tom Niebur 65th in 15:19 and Alex Tarpo 69th in 15:21.

The Warriors finished with a record of 7-2 in dual meets, were fourth in the conference.

second in the Alton sophomore meet, 15th in the Beaumont invitational and 13th in the Edwardsville invitational, and won a triangular run against Assumption and O'Fallon.

Captains of the squad were Tom Niebur and Danny Burris.

K. C.'s to Hold District Degree Ceremony Tonight

Candidates for membership in the Knights of Columbus will be initiated into the first degree of the order in district ceremonies to be conducted at 8 p.m. today at the Edwardsville K. of C. hall.

Local candidates and members are to assemble at the local K. of C. hall at 7 p.m. before proceeding to Edwardsville. An additional first degree initiation is scheduled here Nov. 14 before conferral of the second and third degrees here on Nov. 24. It was announced by Edward Boyer, membership chairman, at a regular meeting Thursday night.

Dr. J. R. Vasiloff, general program chairman, reported that the annual K. of C. memorial service for deceased members will be held after the 9:30 a.m. Mass Nov. 17 at St. Joseph's Church. All members and their families were urged to attend.

The council agreed to a request to assist in the current United Fund campaign by soliciting 30 business establishments in Granite City for pledges, according to Charles Parkinson.

Orchestra Dance
Michael Schuler, grand knight, reminded that the council will hold another orchestra dance for members, their wives and guests on Nov. 16. The Barbara Johnson trio will be featured. Admission will be $2 per couple.

Henry Hadley, faithful navigator of the fourth degree assembly, reported that installation of fourth degree officers will be held on Nov. 20. Members, wives and guests are invited to attend. A turkey dinner will be served.

Plans were announced to hold the annual children's Christmas party at 6 p.m. Dec. 15 and the council Christmas party on Dec. 28.

Carl Petty, family activities chairman, urged support for Catholic Boy Scout awards program in the council-sponsored Troop 18.

The council was invited to

Charles Mikulcica Jr., 62, Dies Early Friday

Charles B. Mikulcica Jr., 62, of 1017 Alton avenue, Madison, died following an apparent heart attack at Stark Nursing Home, Jerseyville, at 6:45 a.m. Friday. He had been ill one day and was transferred to the nursing home from an Alton hospital, where he had been a patient since 1947. An inquiry is pending.

A Madison resident the past 58 years, Mr. Mikulcica was born at Carteret, N. J. He had never married and was employed as a tool grinder at General Steel Industries for several years, leaving the firm in the late 1940s. He was a member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church of Madison.

Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Mikulcica of Madison; two brothers, Mike Mikulcica of Madison, Conn and George Mikulcica of Fairmont, City; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Svoka of Royalton, Ill., and Mrs. Veronica (Mann) Kraus of Granite City; two step-brothers, Andrew and John Yurko, both of Madison, and two step-sisters, Mrs. (Mar) Bakos of East St. Louis and Mrs. Frank (Barbara) Feher of Belleville.

Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Muffler Charge
William Gibson, 19, of 222 Granville street, was issued an arrest ticket in the 300 block of Madison avenue by Venice police Friday afternoon on a charge of operating a motor vehicle with an improper muffler.

Participants in the Edwardsville Veterans Day parade Nov. 14 to be sponsored by the American Legion post there.

It was reported that 30 forty-year members were honored at the Madison county chapter's 40th anniversary meeting the previous Sunday at Highland. They were presented with ring rosaries blessed by Pope Paul.

Mass at K. of C. Hall
Plans were announced for a Mass to be celebrated by Rev. Thomas Treese, chaplain, on June 17 at the K. of C. hall, to be followed by a buffet dinner and a dance. The program will be the first of its kind to be held here.

Edward Lenzl, financial secretary, reported on a seminar he attended recently at Springfield.

A gift to Rev. Louis Range, O.S.B. honoring his recent ordination as a Benedictine priest, was approved on the motion of M. E. Barabek.

Support of Newman foundations at state colleges was urged in a letter from Robert Wehling, diocesan Newman chairman.

The meeting was opened and closed with prayers led by John Korsoski and Lenzl. A luncheon was served after the meeting.

UF Agencies Provide for Needy Families in Quad-Cities

Two local organizations whose mission — to provide direct aid and services to needy families and individuals in a variety of ways — are Catholic Charities and Protestant Welfare. Both are agencies of the Tri-Cities United Fund and through the current UF fund-raising campaign will receive allocations to continue their invaluable services.

Purposes of the Protestant Welfare Association, comprised of over 30 churches, their pastors, laymen and delegates-at-large, are to promote the "moral, social and spiritual betterment of the people within the Quad-City area."

These objectives are accomplished through assistance, without charge, to families, individuals and children, who are in need; and to preserve and strengthen the home through family counseling by cooperating ministers.

Typical Month
In a recent month, there were 47 cases aided, involving 172 persons. Within the same period, 37 orders were filled for relief and 13 orders of clothing and shoes distributed from the association's local storehouse.

During 1967, a total of 423 cases were furnished some degree of assistance, involving more than 1683 persons. Also last year, 429 relief orders were issued for food, rent, utilities, medical expenses and new shoes and clothing to local residents.

Orville W. Gans serves as president of Protestant Welfare Association, with Mrs. Marie Whittle in charge of the office and storehouse facility, located at 2052 Edison avenue.

The association will receive an allocation of $11,750 to carry on its work in 1968, an increase of $750 over last year's allotment.

Catholic Charities
Catholic Charities, located at 2012 Delmar avenue, offers material assistance in emergencies on a non-sectarian basis. Families are assisted in solving their problems on an emotional, marital or financial nature by counseling with trained caseworkers.

Catholic Charities also super-

LOCAL YOUNGSTERS are outfitted with clothing from the extensive supply on hand at Protestant Welfare Association, 2052 Edison avenue, an agency of the Tri-Cities United Fund. vises child adoption and foster home placements by referral from county courts, and unvetted mothers are aided with their problems.

In 1967, 742 cases were furnished assistance. Twenty-one of these involved unmarried mothers, with 18 adoptions completed during the year.

A clothing room is handled by the Ladies of Charity, who annually distribute thousands of articles of every description.

The United Fund agency is managed by the office of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Springfield, Ill., with Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Cassin serving as director.

To continue its community-wide program next year, Catholic Charities will receive a $38,500 allocation from the Tri-Cities United Fund campaign.

Health Services Fund, a third United Fund agency, whose benefits reach into many Quad-City homes, is the Health Services Fund.

Originally established as a fund offered to national health agencies in lieu of separate fund-raising drives in the community, the Health Services Fund now functions for persons with medical problems beyond their financial resources who need supplemental or direct assistance.

Requests for aid, referred by physicians, clergymen, or individuals, are studied by social agencies equipped to make such case-studies and recommended to the Health Services Fund review board of the Tri-Cities United Fund for approval. Arthur D. Roseman heads the review committee. Payments are made to agencies, individuals, hospitals, drug stores, or other medical dispensing services from the UF allocation.

Next year, the Health Services Fund will receive an allotment of $7500, a decrease of $100 from the current allocation.

Man Cut On Hand, Knee In Fight at Tavern

Robert Barnhardt, 50, of 2421 Missouri avenue, was cut on the palm of the right hand requiring four stitches and on the left knee requiring five stitches in a fight with an unknown man who used a pocket knife outside the Curve Inn tavern, 2818 Missouri avenue, it was reported to the Madison county sheriff's office at 12:30 p.m. Friday.

Barnhardt was taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment. He and his wife told sheriff's deputies that he and his wife were in the tavern and argument started between Barnhardt and the other man. The bartender ordered both men to leave, and the fight ensued.

CALLS CONVENTION PLAN A COSTLY SUBTERFUGE
To the Editor:
The voters of Illinois will vote on an important issue on Nov. 5—the calling of a Constitutional convention to consider rewriting sections of the Illinois Constitution. This issue is commonly referred to as Con. Con. The United Steelworkers of America and the Illinois State AFL-CIO are urging the voters to vote "No" on this important issue.

Changes that are necessary in the Constitution can be submitted to the voters without the enormous expense of calling a Constitutional convention. Under the Gateway Amendment, up to three Constitutional changes may be submitted to the voters.

The Judicial Article was passed in this manner, and two years ago a Revenue Article was submitted to the voters and was defeated, and rightly so. Only after defeat of the Revenue Article, which would have given preferential treatment to industry and big business at the expense of the wage earner, did we see any activity concerning a Constitutional convention.

The proponents of such a plan feel they can get this unfair Revenue Article passed through the legislature by calling a Constitutional convention.

Representatives to serve at the convention will be elected on the basis of two from each Senatorial District in the state of Illinois.

There is every reason to believe this body would be as conservative as the present makeup of the Senate, and representatives would be representative of special interest groups who would be allowed time away from their business or profession to attend meetings in Springfield for many months.

The cost of holding a convention will run into millions of dollars and the end result could be the same as in Maryland, New York, and Rhode Island, where the voters defeated the changes submitted by the Constitutional convention at a time when Illinois is in a financial crisis, the gamble is too expensive.

Any Constitutional changes would create new legal questions to be tested in the courts at the expense of both the state and the citizens involved.

Anti-labor legislation such as anti-picketing and right-to-work laws could be written into a new constitution by the proponents of such reactionary proposals.

Lack of space prevents relating other bad features of this proposal. Study it carefully. Don't be conned into Con. Con. on Nov. 5 vote "No" on the calling of a Constitutional convention.

Ogilvie, Simon, Carpenter, Howlett, Scott Recommended for State Offices

Six state offices will be decided in the general election Nov. 5, largely determining the direction of Illinois government for the next four years. The Press-Record gives its recommendations below.

GOVERNOR—Richard B. Ogilvie, 45, Republican, Cook county board chairman, has given Illinois an opportunity to rid itself of its long domination by the Chicago Democratic political machine, through electing him as governor. As a proven vote-getter in the normally Democratic metropolis to the north as well as in largely Republican downstate Illinois, he has an excellent opportunity to win, and we hope he is successful.

Ogilvie has had a consistent record of achievement and has chosen worthy goals. As sheriff, he made serious inroads on the previous vice-rampaging operations of the gangster syndicate in one of its principal bases of power, the Chicago area. He has widespread labor and business support, an unusual accomplishment.

He has effectively fought vote frauds and is working with county and local-level candidates to help extend honest election practices throughout the state. He has detailed plans for obtaining greater efficiency and economy through reorganizing state government.

Keenly aware of downstate needs, Ogilvie would move immediately to improve streets and highways, develop Horseshoe Lake as a state park and implement recent plans for state sponsorship of Illinois drainage in this region. He would assign a full-time assistant with an office in East St. Louis, to help solve problems developing in this part of Illinois.

Ogilvie would give high priority to public safety and alleviating both civil unrest and crime, utilizing the National Guard quickly when needed to "nip in the bud" disturbances before they get out of hand. However, he places strong emphasis on home rule and would act only after consulting with the responsible officials.

A lawyer, he began his assault on crime as a special assistant to the U. S. attorney general in 1958, directing an investigation that led to conviction of the No. 1 hoodlum in the midwest, Tony Accardo.

Governor Samuel Shapiro, 61, Kanakake Democrat, served as a state representative 14 years before becoming lieutenant governor in 1960, and demonstrated as governor at the special session in July that he could work well with both Republican and Democratic legislators.

He is a decent, honorable, likeable man who under other circumstances would be able to utilize the leadership Illinois needs. Unfortunately, the power of Mayor Daley of Chicago to dictate state policies has grown so large and is such a threat to democratic process that we feel it is necessary to oppose the head of his state ticket.

LIUTENANT GOVERNOR—Paul Simon (D), 39, Troy, is recommended on the basis of his 14 years of skilled service to this district and to the state in the Illinois House and Senate. He has earned a chance at higher office.

He is honest, intelligent, hard working, familiar with government, unafraid to speak out against its shortcomings, able to understand human needs and adept at communicating with people in all walks of life. Although we differ with him philosophically in some ways, we respect his competence, character and grasp of issues.

His plan to spend two days each week as a traveling ombudsman could go a long way toward improving state services, cutting "red tape" and enhancing the image taxpayers have of government.

Our recommendation is tempered by two factors:

1. We favor the Republican nominees for governor and it could be awkward to have a Democrat as lieutenant governor.

2. The two infant cities of Madison county, Nameoki, 17 months old, and Stallings, a babe of three months, must show the way they came into existence in a proceeding filed in the circuit court by State Attorney J. Edgar Hoover.

Village officers are defendants in quo warrant suits and must show by what authority they are holding office. It is charged that incorporation of the two places is illegal.

City was a factor in the Nameoki incorporation; a similar issue involving a saloon and dance resort developed at Stallings where a village having unusual boundaries was organized.

Democratic lieutenant governor; however, Simon might be able to submerge partisanship enough to achieve an adequate degree of coordination between the two offices.

2. We believe Robert A. Dwyer (R), 48, Winnetka, also could be an able lieutenant governor, handling a wide variety of responsibilities. However, he has no direct experience in elective office.

SECRETARY OF STATE—State Senator Donald D. Carpenter (R), 37, East Moline, has taken the right stand, in running for the office held by his father from 1933 until his death in April 1964: he proposes a skilled staff of license examiners, attracted by placing them under a merit system. Political patronage has hampered the operations of this important office, which has a staff of 3000 and greater responsibilities than in any of the 49 other states.

Carpenter has persuaded six governmental and business leaders, including John Altomir of Peoria, unsuccessful GOP gubernatorial primary candidate, to serve as an advisory board. His duties would include helping implement revisions in the office recommended by the Business Management Study of state governmental procedures.

He also is considering reestablishing a program under which industrial firms furnished the secretary of state office with executive personnel on a six-month or longer basis to aid in improving efficiency.

The incumbent, Paul Powell, Vienna, has automated some phases of the work and instituted other improvements during the past four years. But he is a staunch advocate of patronage rather than career jobs, and is vulnerable to such charges as preferential handling for the license plates of Gangster Boss Giancana (the pertinent records later disappeared from supposedly secure state files), secret lists of drivers about to lose their licenses (obtained by an insurance firm) and ineffective enforcement of truck licensing laws (involving in 1966 the same firm implicated in a 1962 state police payroll scandal). And state agency services and departments have taken an unfavorable trend since 1964.

AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS—Michael J. Howlett, (D), 54, Chicago, deserves the third term he is seeking. His record is one of efficiency and expanded service. Aided by introduction of modern business machines, he has reduced the staff from 217 to 160 and cut unit operating costs, an important step because the scope and volume of work has increased sharply. The cost of writing each state check has been reduced by more than a nickel, and over five million are written each year.

He has been a leader in the effort to tighten auditing requirements, place local-level agencies under state scrutiny and demand state officials to itemize their expense accounts, leading to the belief that Illinois is now the "best audited state" in the U. S.

His opponent, William C. Harris, 47, of Pontiac, has a fine record in the Illinois Senate where he is assistant majority leader, and could serve capably as auditor. He proposes to make the office more of a watchdog of state agency expenditures, particularly during periods when the legislature is not in session. But he has been able to find no fault with the businesslike way the office is being operated.

ATTORNEY GENERAL—William J. Scott, 41, Evanston Republican, the Illinois state treasurer from 1962 to 1966, deserves election over Francis S. Lorenz, 53, Chicago, who lost in the treasurer race last year and who has neglected downstate roads in favor of Cook county projects as head of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings.

In addition to the valid goal of reducing state government expenditures, the hold on the Chicago Democratic organization's hold on the government, it is easy to support Scott because of his record in private and public life.

A former assistant U. S. attorney, he led a successful federal drive against syndicate activities at notorious Calumet City in 1959 and now proposes to lead a bureau of criminal investigation patterned after the FBI. The bureau would help stamp out organized crime, coordinate law enforcement with local authorities and seek greater safety for law-abiding citizens.

Scott served with distinction as state treasurer. The federal bureau of tax collection has more money for Illinois taxpayers than any previous treasurer, set a national record for rate of return on invested state funds, introduced the concept that state funds invested in any Illinois banks as possible would bolster the state's economy, and was the first state treasurer to use investment of state funds to help areas hit by natural disasters.

SUPREME COURT CLERK—Justin Taft of Rochester, an administrative aide to the state supreme court, is a candidate for the position. Miss Fannie C. Jones, East St. Louis school teacher, are the nominees. Miss Jones has an excellent civic record but no experience related to the judicial system. Mr. Taft, 44, a former township supervisor, probate clerk and associate circuit court clerk.

A committee of CIO workers from Lodge 1022 at General Steel Castings Corp. returned from Washington, D. C., with approval of a bonus plan for Sunday work at the plant. Mike Bero, general CIO counsel, and all participated in conferences with Robert T. Ames, special assistant to the U. S. secretary of labor, to work out a bonus arrangement despite the fact that the plan was not approved by the union.

A social meeting of the Auxiliary of American Legion Post 113 took place at the Legion home, Mrs. Emma Steiner and Mrs. Emmeline Smith served as hostesses and the members were entertained at cards. Prizes were won by Mesdames Letta Hegel, Florence Tempa, Louise Bode, Ida Reinhardt, Lou Gray, Hazel Odum, Mary Grothjahn and Vi Hudnall.

ALL HAVE A DUTY TO VOTE WISELY NOV. 5
To the Editor:
Within a short time every eligible voter will have the privilege to express a voice in the privacy of a voting booth.

We urge that this privilege be exercised, because we believe this is a critical time in our nation's affairs—a time when each and every voter should perform this cherished act of freedom.

Headlines today are not happy, nor are there many really happy people.

Peculiarly, though, we of all peoples are best equipped to be happy—with our rich lands, booming factories, staggering amounts of food, clothing, houses, cars and all the externals for "progress."

Ironically, we have poverty, massive rebellion, destructive attitudes, widespread infidelity and contemptuous disregard for our own country and laws.

It is our sincere hope that members of the National Association of Business and Professional Women will not go to the polls as mixed up as the headlines but that they will take time to focus their intellectual capabilities on the problems and on the leaders to be elected.

We are not naive enough to believe that any one candidate can be everything to everybody; that one man in a democracy can fulfill every promise, or that any one man need still have infallible judgment.

We do assume, though, that the successful candidate will be a man of honor, sincerity and integrity.

Let's look beyond the headlines, the popular, the flamboyant, the dead-serious or the bombastic candidate, just as we look beyond headlines and the story. Just as a headline is an "attention-getter," a candidate's prominent trait first catches attention.

A candidate depends on the electorate to invest him with the office he seeks. He is the product of corporate funds created and embodied by thousands of "X's" in hundreds of voting booths.

That "X" should be the hallmark of this voter's most intelligent and unbiased opinion of that candidate—the candidate of his choice.

"X's" marks the whole of voters' considered judgments on their ballots on election day. All need to vote wisely, privately, vote bravely.

GRANITE CITY BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB
CLARK WOULD IMPROVE SENATE REPRESENTATION
To the Editor:

The presidential race has drawn so much attention that year that Illinois voters are ignoring the equally important races for the Senate, the House and for state offices. The candidates who win these races will affect directly the lives of all Illinois citizens for the next four years and thus merit careful attention.

It is particularly to be regretted that voters are ignoring the U. S. Senate race between William G. Clark, the Democratic nominee, and the incumbent, Ev Dirksen.

In Mr. Clark, voters have an opportunity to vote for an outstanding candidate who has led a long career of distinguished public service, a candidate who has "backed" the Daley machine and Lyndon Johnson, a candidate who in his eight years as attorney general of Illinois has proved to be a real leader and has earned the respect of all.

In contrast, a vote for Dirksen is a vote for things as they are, and a vote against the man in the street.

for six more years of poor representation for Illinois.

A vote for Mr. Clark is a protest against the mistakes of the past and a chance to move forward. All voters, Democrats, Republicans and independents, who feel that it's time for a change and time to get Illinois and the country moving again, owe it to themselves to vote for Bill Clark on Nov. 5.

LOCAL TEACHER

HUMPHREY RECORD IS 100% FOR WORKING MEN

To the Editor:
The following comments are directed to laboring men and women of the area.

Do not be misled by the cry of "law and order" by George Wallace and his supporters. Do not be fooled by Nixon's propaganda on law leadership and his wild promises of greater things to come. Let us examine the records in this campaign.

The Wallace record is the record of Alabama—race discrimination, high crime rates, poor schools, high taxes for corporations and strike-breaking with use of state police. Does this record sound like he is a supporter of the ordinary laboring man?

The record of Nixon is one of being a friend of corporations and the wealthy, co-author of the Taft-Hartley Act, and consistently against labor.

The unprecedented domestic progress of the last eight years has come about as a result of policies and programs initiated by Mr. Nixon.

Hubert Humphrey's record is one of being a staunch friend of the worker throughout his public life. He has asked for, and deserves, the support of labor on the basis of his 19% record of support for labor.

Seldom has so qualified a candidate been defeated before the American voters. Never has a presidential candidate been so totally committed in word and deed to the fulfillment of the American dream.

Never has there been a presidential candidate more deeply identified with the needs and aspirations of America's workers.

I sincerely urge that the working people vote, and vote heavily, for the candidate who is for them—Hubert H. Humphrey. Support the Democrats—they are for laboring men and women.

Deaths from Spanish influenza here last week averaged three a day. Many pneumonia deaths also are occurring. Local physicians are working night and day to cope with the epidemic and have prevented many deaths by their long hours and quick action. They are recommending flu vaccine and many residents have received it. The change in the weather appears to be reducing the total number of cases but has not lowered the death rate.

The two infant cities of Madison county, Nameoki, 17 months old, and Stallings, a babe of three months, must show the way they came into existence in a proceeding filed in the circuit court by State Attorney J. Edgar Hoover.

Sailor, Marines, Soldiers in Today's 'Yule Mail' List

A Granite City sailor whose hand-lettered list welcomed the three returning U.S. astronauts aboard the USS Essex last week; a special reconnaissance team sergeant whose company recently discovered an extensive complex of enemy bunkers and supplies near the Cambodian border; two U.S. Marine Corps members of the U. S. Marine Corps; and a Navyman listed for the third year as among the Quaid-City military personnel on today's "Yule Mail Call," 1968.

Mrs. Meta C. Wilkins, 1803 Market street, Madison, submitted the names and addresses of her two sons—both serving in the Marine Corps.

Marine Sgt. Edgar R. Wilkins, a six-year Marine Corps veteran, recently returned from his second tour of duty in Vietnam, and presently is stationed in Washington, D. C.

His younger brother, Pfc David L. Wilkins, enlisted in the Marine Corps in September 1967 and has been serving in Vietnam with the Seventh Communications Battalion, First Marine Division, since March of this year.

Third Time on List

In submitting her son's name and address, Mrs. C. Wilkins, 1123 Calhoun street, Madison, wrote—"This will be the third year that the name and address of my son, Victor McLaughlin, has appeared in your 'Yule Mail Call' and he has received quite a bit of response from it, thanks to you. It is a great idea."

The serviceman is stationed aboard the USS Skiff.

Mr. and Mrs. William Landman, 2833 Palmer avenue, wrote—"Thank you very much for the news of our son. We appreciated reading the article, and many of his friends telephoned us after seeing it in the Press-Record. Please add his name to members made 'trick or treat' bags trimmed in reflector tape for safety."

Answering roll call were Jo Alexander, Tina Bladick, Robin Clonko, Kim Dietrick, Jackie Garrison, Beth Gollinger, Pat Jarrett, Paula Kaybosian, Laura Kelly, Mary Livingston, Janice Morgan, Carol Penrod, Mary Romine, Sherri Singleton, Lauri Shuran, Lynn Smith, Tammy Speirs, Rebecca Spurr, Tracy Lee Tracy and Lori Weiss.

A 12-year career Army man who has served in Vietnam since July, SFC Landman is married to the former Mrs. Ann Shand of Granite City. The couple has four children, Christy, 15, Diane, 14, William III, 12, and a son, 11 years. Mrs. Landman and the children are residing in Granite City, while her husband is overseas.

Employed in the supply and print room of the First Air Force City National Bank before enlisting in the Navy last February, Seaman Ralph D. Henry joined the crew of the aircraft carrier USS Essex in May. He works in the vessel's printing shop, and has learned all phases of print work, including offset printing, photography typesetting and lettering.

Among the military personnel's duties is that of an illustrator for the ship's newspaper and in this capacity was chosen to make the ship welcoming the three astronauts aboard the giant carrier.

The blue and gold (Navy colors) banner was prominently displayed last week as the vessel's helicopter crews recovered the shuttle and crew from the Atlantic.

Seaman Henry, 21, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Henry, 728 Grand avenue, Madison. Local residents are invited to submit the names and addresses of family members who are away from home or overseas are eligible to be listed.

by a neighbor, Mrs. Joyce Bruce, 541 Chouteau, who said she had heard an explosion. Chief Paul, who estimated damage to the gutted house at $2500, said the explosion probably was a gas leak. The exact cause of the blaze was not determined during an inspection yesterday by deputy Fire Marshal Andrew Gaspard.

Mrs. Depping and her husband lived in the Mitchell area about 35 years. He was employed by the C&E Railroad at Mitchell until retiring five years ago.

Mrs. Depping was a native of Pin Oak township and was a member of Eden United Church of Christ at Edwardsville. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, Norbert, of Edwardsville; three daughters, Mrs. James (Norma) Metcalf of Granite City, Mrs. Boris (Ruby) Metcalf of Madison and Miss Charlotte Depping of St. Louis county; a brother, Rudolph Widding of Edwardsville, and four grandchildren.

Services will be at Edwardsville, with visitation from noon to 2 p.m. Tuesday at the church, 803 Second street, Edwardsville.

Pre-Natal Class at Hospital on Tuesday

Prospective parents are invited to attend Tuesday's second session of the pre-natal instruction classes offered by St. Elizabeth Hospital. Officers were placed against John Preston Wilson, 18, of 2383 State street, who was arrested by Madison police at 12:10 a.m. Saturday on a parking lot in the 1400 block of Fourth street.

Police said they were on patrol and stopped when they saw a can of beer on the car and noticed several young men at the car. The officers ordered Wilson to give them the beer, and the youth swung at one of the policemen, according to the report.

Three Men Charged

Three men were arrested early Saturday at 10th and Iowa streets following a fight. Madison police charged Gerald Seng, 27, of 1920 Beckwith street, and Leonard McMillen, 22, of St. Louis with fighting, and an interested charge was placed against Stagner after Stagner and McMillen had been taken in custody.

Police said Stagner had struck McMillen with a beer bottle in the altercation at the Sportsman's Club about 1:30 a.m.

10,000 Musical Selections Council Plans Given to SIU-SW Library To Act Tonight On Redistricting

An extensive collection of music has been added to Southern Illinois University's Lovejoy Library at the Southwestern campus, according to Charles B. Schweitzer of SIU-SW's Foundation office.

A gift from orchestra leader Russ David of St. Louis, the collection consists of standard published orchestral arrangements, mostly popular music, containing the playing parts for more than 10,000 selections.

Miss Mabel Murphy, fine arts librarian at Lovejoy, said the collection is so extensive it filled a large truck when moved from a St. Louis warehouse to SIU-SW. The music was collected over a number of years, ending about 1948, she said, by the late Ben Rader, a well-known orchestra leader in St. Louis. David, popular St. Louis radio personality and orchestra leader, acquired the collection several years ago and presented it to the Foundation where he learned of the library's interest in building its popular music collection.

Some semiclassical arrangements are included in the collection, Miss Murphy said. "An interesting segment of the collection is a considerable number of 'hot' arrangements of many of the familiar melodies from opera and symphonies which came into the popular music repertoire in the 1940's."

Other recent additions to the Music of the American People collection at Lovejoy Library are three gifts of music for silent movie theater orchestras from Elmer Book of Greenville; Eugene Eichler, Lincolnville; and Mrs. Ed Boesen, Collinsville.

Percussion Ensemble

To Play at SIU-SW

The Manhattan Percussion Ensemble, under the direction of Paul Price, will give two concerts at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus Friday, Nov. 1.

A free concert will be presented at 12:30 p.m. for SIU-SW students. At 8:15 p.m. there will be a performance for the general public. Admission will be $1 per person at the door. Both concerts will be in the Communications Building theater.

The six-member ensemble, which has been described as unique, dazzling and exciting, recently returned from an eight-week State Department tour of nine countries—Norway, Belgium, Austria, Poland, Yugoslavia, Greece, Turkey, Lebanon and Iran.

Sponsored by SIU-SW's Fine Arts Division, the program will include Malloy Miller's "Prelude for Percussion," "Chamber Piece for Percussion Quintet," Alan Hovhaness' "October Mountain," Lou Harrison's "Suite," Alcides Lanza's "Interferences," Robert Kelly's "Toccata for Marimba and Percussion Ensemble," and Carlos Chavez's "Tambuco."

Garbage Dumped in Auto

Roy Hagan, 2817 Saratoga avenue, said his 1966 auto was parked at his home and about 7:30 p.m. Thursday he discovered that garbage had been thrown on the front seat. He said the vandals also damaged the dashboard.

GC Chaplain Urges Support for Servicemen

"Today, two of our pilots died. Last week we lost two helicopter crew men who were attempting the rescue of another downed crew. Tonight I visited over 100 men who became casualties within the past 24 hours."

"The American public must not let its reservations about the war overshadow the sacrifices of these men," Chaplain Major James E. Townsend, U.S. Air Force, wrote from Vietnam to Richard M. Dawdy, president of the Granite City Jaycees.

Chaplain Townsend, whose wife and four children are residing at 2316a State street, while he is serving in Vietnam with the 366th Combat Support Group, was one of five overseas servicemen selected to receive a direct phone call from his family in a recent Jaycee-sponsored contest.

The transoceanic telephone call was completed earlier this month by the Air Force major to his wife, the former Miss Billie Goodwin of Granite City, and the letter was sent by the Granite City Jaycees in appreciation of hearing from his family.

"Major Townsend's letter touched me very deeply," Dawdy said, "and I plan to approach the Jaycee board of directors to see if we can arrange another overseas call project in time for Christmas. I believe we should do all we can to make Christmas a little less lonely for the men serving in the combat areas, especially in view of the sentiments expressed by the Air Force chaplain."

Dated Oct. 11, the chaplain's communication stated that his appreciation to you and the members of the Granite City Jaycees for the opportunity you afforded me to call my family from Vietnam. The call was a joy to us all. Since it is necessary to travel to Saigon to place a call, I might not have been given the opportunity to talk with my family. However, your gift opened the door for me.

"Our men are doing an important job here under difficult circumstances and with a minimum of support from the American public. They are making heroic sacrifices only to return to a nation that seems wholly indifferent to the cause for which they have given of themselves."

"Our men need and deserve the support of their fellow Americans. Your act of generosity is proof that there are those who do care. I sincerely hope that you will work to make every serviceman returning from Vietnam aware of their community's appreciation for the sacrifices they have made."

Today, two of our pilots died. Last week we lost two helicopter crew men who were attempting a rescue of another downed crew. Tonight I visited over 100 men who became casualties within the past 24 hours. The American public must not let its reservations commanders and families at home to transact the calls.

SAIGON CALLING. Mrs. Billie Townsend listens with obvious delight to the voice of her husband, Chaplain Major James E. Townsend, USAF, calling from Vietnam. The telephone call was made possible by the Granite City Jaycees, who are in the process of arranging four similar conversations between overseas servicemen and their families here.

Other winning registrants and the servicemen they listed, included Mrs. Melba Stephens, 1013 Third street, Venice; Jimmy Stephens, husband; Mrs. George Hartzel, 2129 Woodlawn avenue—SP-5 Gary Hartzel, son; Mrs. Christine Firmin, 2223 Edison avenue—Mr. Kenneth Williams, brother; and SP-4 Larry M. Schmollinger—Sgt. James D. Schmollinger, brother.

Major Townsend is stationed at Da Nang, one of the major supply bases for U. S. Forces in Vietnam and approximately 100 south of the De-Militarized Zone between North and South Vietnam. He entered the Air Force in June, 1956.

He is a graduate of Granite City high school and received degrees from McKendree College, Lebanon, and Colgate-Rochester College in Rochester, New York. His mother, Mrs. Jesse Clements, now resides in Cumberland, Tenn.

Also speaking on the telephone with Chaplain Townsend were his four youngsters, Kenneth, a GCHS junior, Wayne, a ninth grade pupil at Prather junior high school, Twila, who is in the seventh grade at Central junior high school, and Jay, who attends kindergarten class at McKinley elementary school.

Mrs. Townsend is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Goodwin, 2316 State street. Dawdy explained that following the contest, in which the names of servicemen were registered at a special Jaycee booth during Nameoki Village "Charity Days" in late September, the servicemen selected were contacted by the young men's service club via letter and asked to make arrangements with their unit

Governor 'Commits' Self to Drainage-Lake Development

Unqualified commitment to a "one ties in with the other" and said they should be considered a joint project rather than separate projects. He said he will work with the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission headed by Henry Karandjeff of Granite City.

While the governor earlier had said he favored both the Hillside Drainage program, for which he promised state sponsorship, and development of the Horseshoe Lake area, he said Friday he wished to elaborate on his earlier discussions by making a definite commitment to the programs.

Gov. Shapiro said that the nature of both programs are such that "one ties in with the other" and said they should be considered a joint project rather than separate projects. He said he will work with the Illinois Horseshoe Lake Commission headed by Henry Karandjeff of Granite City.

300 Attend IASB Conference Here

The need to update the Illinois state constitution was stressed by speakers at the semi-annual conference of Illinois Association of School Boards, Southwest Division, conducted Thursday evening at Granite City high school.

About 300 persons were in attendance from Madison, St. Clair, Monroe and Randolph counties, including school board members, superintendents, teachers and secretaries.

Main speakers were B. B. Burgess, executive director of the Illinois Association of School Boards, and Prof. George T. Wilkins of the SIU-SW campus staff, who is former state superintendent of schools, and is chairman of the Illinois School Problems Commission.

Panel workshops were held following the smorgasbord dinner in the school cafeteria.

Topics discussed in the workshops were—"How Can We Meet Special Education Requirements?", "The School Board and the Law," "Year-Around School," "School Improvement Programs," "Innovative Ideas in Education," "School Purchasing Procedures" and a "Secretarial Workshop."

Calvo Is Endorsed

By Members of UAW

Honore L. Calvo, local Democratic candidate for state representative, on Friday received endorsement of the United Automobile, Aerospace & Agricultural Implement Workers Union.

The action was taken by the union's executive board, and the UAW director, Robert Johnson said the endorsement was based on Calvo's "effectiveness and work for issues that are particularly for the betterment of the total community rather than personal segments."

Miss Beverly. Kyle Parmley, Daniel J. Partney are Wed

The wedding of Miss Beverly Kyle Parmley, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Parmley, 2209 Lincoln avenue, and Daniel Joseph Partney, son of Mayor Donald Partney, 2600 Illinois avenue, and the late Mrs. Dorothy Partney, took place at 6 o'clock Saturday evening at St. John Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Samuel Boda officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Burning candles in candelabra lighted the altar decorated with greenery, and white ribbon bows marked the family pews.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Josie Diak vocalist and Miss Alta Bollinger, organist. The songs were "The Lord Keep Me and Bless Me," and "God My Shepherd."

The bride wore a floor-length sheath gown of white peau de soie fashioned with long sleeves tapered at the hands and a fitted bodice encrusted with re-embroidered Alcon lace motifs covering the shoulders and cascading down the front and sides of the skirt.

A court train of matching fabric, also encrusted with lace was secured at the back of the Empire waist with a large peau de soie bow.

The bride wore a cluster hat of lace flowers edged with pearls and velvet petals, interspersed with crystals, which held in place a tiered veil of scalloped hand-rolled silk illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mr. Partney gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Char Lee Baldwin was her sister's honor attendant, and Miss Kathy Crawford and Miss Nancy Drew served as bridesmaids.

They were dressed alike in celery green karati cloth, floor-length with "A" line skirts. The short sleeves were belted and the bodices had scooped necklines. Wide bias bands and bows marked the Empire waists in front and gathered panels at the back were caught at the waists with two small bows of self fabric.

They wore cluster hats of matching green karati securing bouffant tiered veils. All three carried nosegays of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums and pom poms.

A little flower girl, Deborah Baldwin, wore a dress corresponding to those of the older attendants. Robert Thomas Jr. was ring bearer.

David Partney was best man for his brother; and another brother, Donald Partney Jr., Gary McIlroy, Charles Parmley and Robert Thomas served as groomsmen and ushers. The candles were lighted by Philip Mull.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Parmley chose a champagne crepe dress with a jewel neckline and matching marabou feather trim on the sleeves, a champagne whimsy encrusted with marabou, and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. Partney, the bridegroom's stepmother, wore a fitted beige dress with reem-broidered lace over ribbon, a beige whimsy trimmed with ostrich feathers and a corsage of green orchids.

A reception was held at the Long Lake Fireman's Hall. Miss Jane Parmley and Miss Linda Davis were in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Granite City high school. Mr. Partney, who was graduated in 1967, is now serving with the U. S. Army and will leave soon for Vietnam.

The rehearsal dinner was given on Friday evening at Tony's restaurant by the bridegroom's father.

SGT. AND MRS. DAVID L. CANDLER, who were married Saturday evening at Cayuga Temple. The bride is the former Carol Sue Skaggs, a daughter of Ralph W. Skaggs sr., 2041 Quincy street, and Mrs. Lucy Skaggs, 2317 Delmar avenue.

CHRISTENING CEREMONY FOR LISA ANDREWS

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Dutton, 419a Madison avenue, Madison, entertained 175 relatives and friends at a buffet dinner Sunday at the American Legion home in Granite City in honor of the christening at the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church in Madison of their infant granddaughter, Lisa Renea Andrews, daughter of Sgt. and Mrs. Terry Andrews, formerly of this area but now stationed at Forbes Air Force Base in Topeka.

The Rev. Eugene Vansuch officiated at the christening during the Divine Liturgy. The godparents were Mrs. Michael Sasyk, Mrs. Paul Rydgig and John Dutton.

The paternal grandparents of the baby are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andrews, also of Madison.

Candler-Skaggs Nuptials Saturday at Cayuga Temple

Miss Carol Sue Skaggs became the bride of Sergeant David L. Candler Saturday evening at the Cayuga Temple.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Lucy Skaggs, 2317 Delmar avenue, and Ralph W. Skaggs sr., 2041 Quincy street, Sgt. Candler's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Candler, 2668 Highway 67.

The Rev. Thomas R. Parker officiated at the 7:30 service. The double-ring ceremony was used.

Bouquets of white gladiolus, branched candelabra holding lighted candles, and greenery provided the setting for the ceremony. The candles were lighted by Mrs. Garret Vase, a sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Barbara Montine, a sister.

A program of wedding music was given by Mrs. Wilma Webb, organist, and David Richardson, vocalist. The songs were "O Promise Me," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of pure white silk organza over peau de soie. The fitted bodice featured a round neckline trimmed with scalloped Alcon lace and miniature seed pearls, and belted Kabuki sleeves. The bouffant skirt was adorned with lace motifs forming cascading bows to the hemline.

The full court train, delicately traced with matching motifs, was secured at the shoulders. The bride wore a double lace crown edged with pearls and centered with a cluster of crystals which secured her bouffant veil of imported bridal illusion.

Her flowers were white tear drop carnations and lilies of the valley centered with a detachable corsage.

Miss Diane Skaggs, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Miss Sandra Kay Candler, the bridegroom's sister, bridesmaid, wore identical gowns, except for color, with fitted bodices round necks and short sleeves. The full floor-length skirts were designed with tiers of ruffles to the hemlines and flat bows at the waistlines in the back. Long streamers emphasized the natural waistlines.

The honor attendant wore mint green lace over tulle and carried a cascade bouquet of green, yellow and blue carnations, while Miss Candler chose pastel blue lace and a boquet of green, yellow and blue carnations. Both wore headpieces of double flat bows holding in place short nose tip veils.

Karen Faith Montine, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She wore a long dress of white lace over yellow tulle. A flat French bow of tulle was secured to a double crown veil of yellow and she carried a nosegay of yellow, blue and green carnations with ribbon streamers. A very full skirt was scalloped at the hem and a yellow ribbon encircled her waist, tying at the back with long streamers falling to the bottom of the skirt.

Steven Scott Candler, a brother of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Skaggs wore a double knit dress of parrot pink and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother was in a beige brocade suit and matching accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was his cousin, Tommy Parker. Groomsmen and ushers were Jim Smith, Michael Candler, a brother of the groom, and Ralph Skaggs, the bride's brother.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall directly after the ceremony.

The former Miss Skaggs attended Granite City schools and is now attending the Granite City School of Beauty Culture. Sgt. Candler was a graduate from the local high school and is serving in the Air Force. He is stationed at Pease Air Force Base in New Hampshire.

Expect Record Vote in State Election Nov. 5

This year's state election is offering Illinois voters the most hotly contested campaign in recent years, marked by GOP inroads that have put the Democrats on the defensive in many parts of the state, including the top Democratic stronghold of Cook County.

Embattled bids for election of governor and U. S. Senator at the top of the Republican and Democratic state tickets, coupled with the three-way Presidential campaign and multiple national issues including law and order, economy and the war in Vietnam, appear certain to attract to the polls on Nov. 5 the heaviest general election vote in several decades.

Intense interest in state balloting extends all down the list of candidates on both party tickets, due primarily to the fact Democratic candidates are all long-time party stalwarts with long experience in public office and with party organization support, while GOP candidates are men of previous experience in public office or possess the qualifications to hold the offices they seek.

U. S. Senator

Topping the state ballot in the Nov. 5 election is the contest for U. S. Senator in which incumbent Illinois Attorney General William G. Clark is the Democratic candidate in a bid to unseat incumbent U. S. Senator Everett M. Dirksen, whose term in the U. S. Senate expires this year.

At 43 years of age, Clark has a background of nearly 20 years in state service. He was only 28 when first elected to the Illinois General Assembly as a state senator. At 34 he was majority leader of the State House and in 1960 was elected for the first time as attorney general.

He was re-elected in 1964, leading the state Democratic ticket with a plurality of more than 520,000 votes.

As a candidate for the senate post he has expressed "grave concern regarding the wisdom of our present policies in the conduct of the war in Vietnam."

Clark is a descendant of pioneer forefathers who came to Illinois in a covered wagon. His grandfather John S. Clark II was a Chicago alderman, Cook County assessor and a Democratic party leader.

He entered public life at 26, appointed by Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson as attorney for the Cook county public administrator. He obtained his law degree from DePaul University after earlier study at Loyola and the University of Michigan.

Clark was the creator of the state's first Consumer Fraud

WILLIAM G. CLARK

Bureau which has processed thousands of complaints and recovered more than $2 million taken from housewife's budgets by fraud and deception. He established the "Charity Hot Line," the only system of its kind in the nation. With a phone call, any resident of the state can determine whether a soliciting charity is legitimate.

As attorney general, Clark also sponsored the Anti-Trust Act under which more than $1 million has been recovered from price conspiracies against the state, and brought to a conclusion, after 30 years of legal dispute, the Lake Michigan diversion case, winning for Illinois full access to Lake waters.

Clark lives in Chicago, is married and has five children. His Republican opponent, Everett McKinley Dirksen, is a veteran officeholder whose career in politics dates back 36 years. As minority leader of the Senate for the past ten years, Sen. Dirksen has been described by his supporters as one of the few remaining Republican veterans "bigger than their party, able to command headlines on their own, beat the Democrats in a big city state, and possessed of a hot line to the power structure of the party all over the nation."

Dirksen is 72 years old and is the son of German immigrant parents. He was born in Pekin, which is still his home. He enlisted in the Army during world war I in 1917 and served 17 months, receiving an officer commission on the battlefields of France.

He was elected as congressman in 1932, serving 16 years, and was elected to the Senate in 1950. He was chairman of the Senate Campaign Committee from 1951 through 1955. In 1954 he became minority whip of the Senate and has been minority Senate leader from 1958 until the present.

EVERETT M. DIRKSEN

Dirksen is a member of the Senate Finance and Judiciary Committees.

Governor

More than any other factor challenging Democratic strength in Illinois politics is the candidacy of Richard B. Ogilvie in his bid on the Republican ticket for election as Illinois governor.

Throughout his campaign Ogilvie has repeatedly attacked Democratic "machine" politics in Chicago and Cook County and is more qualified to do so than any other candidate on the Republican ticket.

As president of the Board of Cook County Commissioners, Ogilvie presently directs the activities and services of nearly 20,000 employees and administers an annual budget of about $500 million, but he also is credited with breaking the Democratic machine grip on the Cook county sheriff's office in 1962 and thus beginning a revival of Republican politics in Illinois.

During the next four years he completely revamped the sheriff's office which had been notorious for its failings under a succession of both Democratic and Republican sheriffs. Not only did he crack down on the crime syndicate gamblers, but he drove their political allies out of positions of power as well. He shook up the Cook county police force from top to bottom, replaced spoils politics with Civil Service and made the police force into an organization which received national recognition for its competency and efficiency.

When discussions regarding a Republican ticket for 1968 began, Sheriff Ogilvie was nominated as the party's candidate for county board president. In November 1966 he not only was elected board president—he received more votes in Cook county than any other candidate on the ballot, either Republican or Democrat.

Within 90 days after his inauguration, he appointed a Citizens committee to evaluate county government and to recommend necessary reforms. Reports from this committee form the basis of economies which have prevented a 1968 increase in real estate taxes for the county government—the only tax agency in Cook county to achieve such a record.

He supported programs designed to meet a financial crisis inherited from the previous administration, demanded an end to restrictive bidding practices on highway contracts and supported legislative reforms for conduct of county elections and county purchasing.

Ogilvie is a graduate of Yale University and Chicago Kent College of Law and was admitted to the Illinois Bar in 1950. He is a member of a Chicago law firm and is licensed to practice in the U. S. District court, U. S. Court of Appeals, 7th Circuit, U. S. Court of Military Appeals and the United States Supreme Court.

He served overseas during world war II and was wounded

He has been an active member of the public affairs committee of the United League Club and is a member of the City Club of Chicago, Illinois St. Andrew Society, the Attorneys and the American Legion.

Opposing Ogilvie at the top of the Democratic party ticket in the gubernatorial race is incumbent Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro of Kankakee, who has a record of 35 years in Illinois public life. Shapiro became governor after appointment of Gov. Otto Kerner as a judge of the U. S. Court of Appeals and was a candidate for governor on the June 11 primary ballot without opposition.

The governor is a former city attorney of Kankakee, former state's attorney of Kankakee county and a former state representative for 14 years. He was elected lieutenant governor in 1960.

Gov. Shapiro was reared in Kankakee where he attended the public grade and high schools. He attended St. Viator College for part of his pre-legal education and later enrolled in the University of Illinois where he obtained his law degree in 1929.

His political career was prompted by the late Gov.

Henry Horner who, as probate judge, so impressed Shapiro during his appearances in Horner's court that when Horner ran for governor in 1932 Shapiro became active politically in his behalf.

During his term as state's attorney, Shapiro indicted, prosecuted and convicted the State Director of Public Welfare as the result of a typhoid fever epidemic at the Maneto State

SAMUEL SHAPIRO

Hospital involving 453 cases and 60 deaths. The case gave Shapiro national prominence. He enlisted during world war II and served in the Navy with the Anti-Submarine Warfare unit. Upon his return from service he was elected in 1948 as a member of the Illinois House of Representatives where he served seven terms (14 years). He served on the Judiciary, Appropriation and Executive Committees, and in the 1959 session he was chairman of the Health, Welfare and Safety Committees, becoming the outstanding legislative expert on mental health problems.

He was chairman of the Commission on Mental Health for eight years and is rated by authorities as the foremost in this field in the state and nation.

In 1961 he was one of the founders of the National Conference of lieutenant governors and in December 1962 was elected chairman of that body.

Gov. Shapiro is a member of the American, Illinois and Kankakee Bar Associations, The Decalogue Society of Lawyers, the Kankakee Chamber of Commerce, Country Club, Kiwanis Club, Loyal Order of Moose, Elks (past exalted ruler), Christian Club of Illinois, B'nai B'rith, American Legion, Amvets and Temple B'nai Israel. He has served as state secretary and state treasurer of the Young Democrats of Illinois, past president of both the Musicians Union and the Kankakee Federation of Labor, past national president of Alpha Epsilon Pi Fraternity, a former director of the Illinois Mental Health Association, and a member of the National Civil Rights Committee of the Anti-Defamation League. He also is a former member of the Council on Improvement of the Economic and Social Status of Older People and formerly served on the Inter-Governmental and Narcotics Commission.

Gov. Shapiro is married and lives in Kankakee.

Lieutenant Governor

Of particular interest to voters of the Quad-Cities and Madison county is the election of lieutenant governor in which State Senator Paul Simon of Troy is the Democratic candidate. Simon originally sought nomination by the State Central committee as candidate for U. S. Senator, but accepted the lieutenant governor candidacy in favor of Clark.

Senator Simon first came to prominence in Illinois and the nation as a crime-busting young newspaperman in Troy. Then only 22, he is now 39 and one of the youngest among the 1968 group of Democratic candidates.

Rising rapidly on the Illinois political scene and greatly envying the picture in the prospect, he has become firmly established as an authoritative spokesman for progressive thought and action attuned to changing times.

Simon now is in his second year as a member of the State Senate after four terms in the Illinois House. He was six times voted the Independent Voters of Illinois "best legislator" award.

He is the chief sponsor of more than 40 major statutes and is best known for his

"Right to Know" law requiring all meetings of public bodies to be open to the public.

Other laws he sponsored created the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, the Illinois Arts Council, the Illinois Recreation Council and permitted school districts to accumulate funds to avoid high interest on bond issues.

Senator Simon has authored three widely-circulated books and formerly published a chain of small newspapers, having bought the Troy Tribune when he was 19 years old. Several years ago he sold his newspapers to devote full time to his writings and legislative duties.

He was educated at the University of Oregon and Dana College at Blair, Neb., and holds two honorary doctorates, one from Dana College and the other from McKendree College at Lebanon.

Simon spent two years with the Army Counter-Intelligence Corps along the Iron Curtain.

He is married to the former State Rep. Jeanne Hurley and at the time of their marriage in 1960 they were the first husband and wife team in the Illinois Legislature. They have two children.

Opposing Simon for the lieutenant governor's post on the Republican ticket is Robert A. Dwyer of Winnetka, a wealthy businessman who is similar in many ways to Simon, particularly in political beliefs and their ambitions. Like Simon, Dwyer, who was nominated without opposition in the primary, is campaigning on a proposal to make the lieutenant governor's office an active one in which the officeholder is concerned with much more than presiding over the Senate and replacing the governor when he leaves the state.

Dwyer also is among the younger candidates—he is 42. He never has held elective public office, but he has worked through the years as a fundraiser, adviser and organizer of support for local and national Republican candidates.

Dwyer, among other things, has proposed that the lieutenant governor be named to a variety of state commissions and serve as the governor's director of inter-governmental relations with the federal government and local governments in the state. Dwyer also intends to assume leadership in business and economic development throughout the state, an intention backed by Ogilvie who says Dwyer's private business accomplishments qualify him more for this role than a public official.

The Republican candidate contends that his executive experience permits him to bring to the office a capacity for fresh outside innovations and business judgment needed to help run "a huge business like state government."

Dwyer said that he has taken steps to divorce himself from his business interests if he is elected, pointing out that control of his securities and holdings in various corporations will be transferred to bank trustees and others. He said he plans to sell to his partners his major business, Robert A. Dwyer Enterprises, Inc., which specializes in insurance packages to large and small companies. His other business interests include directorships in a bank and a small investment company, partnership in an undertaking establishment and holdings in several sports enterprises, including the Atlanta Braves baseball club.

He is a dedicated crime fighter and formerly was chairman of the Citizens Advisory Board to the Sheriff of Cook County.

Secretary of State

The contest for the Secretary of State's office brings into the election this year two names traditional to this office—that of incumbent Democrat Paul Powell and Donald Carpenter, Republican state senator of East Moline who is the son of the late Charles Carpenter who served three terms in that office and died in 1964 while campaigning for re-nomination in the primary.

Everybody seems to "know" Paul Powell and almost everyone is more or less familiar with his career as mayor of Vienna, his southern Illinois home town, his 15 consecutive terms in the Illinois House, his service as minority whip, minority leader and Speaker of the House in 1949, 1950 and 1951, and as Secretary of State. Highlights of his legislative career under Governors Horner, Stevenson and Kerner included a sustained interest in public education and mental health programs, strengthening driver's license laws, support of modern highway safety and veterans' recognition measures.

PAUL POWELL

In 1951 and 1955 he was voted the outstanding legislator by the Illinois correspondents and under his official custodianship the Illinois State Library has been declared by the library association to have made "more progress in the last three years than in the last quarter century."

As secretary of state during the past four years, Powell has effected improvements in the driver's license program, to give it top ranking in the nation, and perfected a fool-proof millor's license. Installation in his office of a new system of auditing has resulted in a return of more than $1 million in excess of truck license fees. Through automation, his office now gives 30 days notice of expiration of driver's licenses and will soon supply law enforcement agencies with instantaneous auto license information.

In addition, Powell has recommended legislation that will create a merit system for skilled technicians and enforcement employees of his office. He is a former president of the Illinois Association of Agriculture Fairs, is secretary of the Massie County Fair at Vandalia and a member of the Masons, Elks, Eagles and Moose.

Nomination of Carpenter, Powell's Republican opponent, in the June 11 primary is attributed by many to the "Carpenter name." Carpenter, who is only 37, defeated Brian Duff in the June 11 balloting by a six-to-one margin despite opposition by almost every daily newspaper in the state.

Senator Carpenter was elected to the state senate from the district comprising Rock Island, Henderson and Mercer counties in 1952. He was re-elected in 1956 when he carried traditionally Democratic Rock Island county by nearly 6000 votes, winning handsily also in the counties of Mercer and Henderson.

He has been active in Republican politics all of his life. He was born in Moline, Ill. in 1919 and attended St. Anne grade school in East Moline, East Moline high school, Culver Military Academy and St. Ambrose College in Davenport, Iowa.

He has operated the Carpenter Insurance Agency in Moline since 1954 and also is vice-president of the Ridgewood

D. C. CARPENTIER

Variety, Inc. and Cromb, Inc., and is a co-owner of a drive-in restaurant chain in Moline and Rock Island. The family home is in East Moline and he and his wife have five children. In addition to his business holdings, he is a member of the board of directors of Community Savings & Loan Association and on the advisory board of the Financial Security Life Insurance Co. He is a charter member of the East Moline Jaycees and the East Moline Optimists Club and belongs to the Elks Lodge and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

In the Republican party he has been president of the Rock Island County Young Republicans, district governor, chairman of the speakers bureau of the state group and chairman of the Young Republican state legislative committee. He was active in the three successful statewide campaigns waged by his father.

Senator Carpenter has consistently supported Republican policy programs in the state Senate where he is chairman of the Committee on Highways and Traffic Regulation. He is co-chairman of the Illinois Space Commission and a member of the Commission on Illinois Mississippi Canal and Sinsissippi Lake. He also serves on the Interim Commission on Civil Defense Composites.

Carpenter is a member of the Senate Committee on Elections, Financial Institutions, Banks, Savings and Loan, Division of Financial Institutions, Credit Regulations, Public Utilities and Railroads and Senate Operations.

State Auditor

Michael J. Howlett, Democratic candidate for re-election as state auditor, is without question one of the most widely known of state officials throughout the state. His travels have taken him to all parts of the state at one time or another.

Howlett has made his office a national model of business efficiency and integrity.

First elected in 1960 to administer public accounts, Howlett moved immediately to restore confidence in the scandal ridden office and since has instituted improvements and reforms which serve as safeguards unprecedented in operation of the office. He is known for his tight purse-strings methods and saving of more than $600,000 of his biennial appropriation is an example of his concern for economy.

Howlett campaigned for and was responsible for the law providing mandatory audits of county offices, and in his own office set up an investigative division to guard against irregularities in state finances before they occur.

He served in the U. S. Navy from August 1942 to June 1945. From 1952 until his election as auditor, Howlett was vice-president of the Sun Steel Co. of Chicago.

Howlett is a member of the Knights of Columbus, Illinois Athletic Club, Catholic War Veterans, American Legion, Amvets and National Finance Officers Association.

He is married and has six children. Howlett lives in Chicago.

Howlett's Republican opponent is State Senator William C. Harris, 40, a veteran Illinois legislator who lives in Pontiac. He is one of two assistant majority leaders of the Senate, responsible for making certain that Republican members are in attendance for key party roll calls and for development of party policy and strategy.

Senator Harris is chairman of the Appropriations Division of the Senate Committee on Public Finance to which all bills involving expenditure of public monies are referred. As chairman, Harris presides over all hearings.

He also is a member of the important and influential Illinois Budgetary Commission and Senate committees on agriculture, executive, public utilities, Senate operations, and the revenue division of public finance.

Senator Harris has served 14 years in the legislature, having been elected in 1954 to the House of Representatives and in 1960 to the Senate where he has served since.

The senator operates an insurance business. He attended Michigan State University after four years Navy service in world war II. He also is an active member of many fraternal, civic and veterans organizations in Pontiac and served as the Charter President of the Pontiac Jaycees.

He is married and has two children.

Attorney General

Francis S. Lorenz, the Democratic candidate for attorney general, is prominently known for the work he did as chief counsel for the City of Chicago in acquisition of property for O'Hare Field, the Skyway Toll Bridge, and the city's public garage and off-street parking lots.

Lorenz, now director of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings, has been an attorney for 30 years, obtaining his law degree from DePaul University in 1938. He has served as clerk of the Superior Court of Cook County, as Cook County treasurer and as state treasurer for two years.

As Illinois director of the public works department, he has supervised operation of the state's 15,000 miles of roads and highways and construction of interstate highways. He directs operation of Illinois waterways and has been a leading figure in the fight for pollution control.

In 1968 he was named by Kiwanis International and the American Public Works Association among the top ten public works "Men of the Year" and was Illinois representative in the Federal Highway Safety Program.

Lorenz is a member of many organizations including the American Bar Association; 7th Federal Circuit Bar; Advocates Society; American Public Works Association; American Association of State Highway Officials; Delta Theta Phi National Law Fraternity; Lay Trustee of Ronational Alliance; Polish Roman Catholic Union and Polish Arts Club, and the Schwaben-Verein German Society.

William J. Scott is Republican candidate for the attorney general's office and is a former treasurer of the State of Illinois. He practices law with offices in Chicago.

Scott, who is 41, graduated from the Chicago-Kent College of Law in 1950 and was admitted to practice law before the Illinois Supreme Court the same year. He was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court in 1957. He served under Robert Taft as a special assistant U. S. Attorney for the Northern district of Illinois in 1959, conducting a federal crackdown on the crime syndicate's vice and gambling operations in Calumet City, and was one of the key men in the fight for the government before the United States Senate Racket Investigation Committee in 1962.

Last year he won the Republican nomination for state treasurer in a hard-fought primary battle in which he carried 67 downstate counties as well as the City of Chicago. He gained almost 2 million votes in the general election to defeat the incumbent Democratic state treasurer.

As treasurer Scott initiated new investment policies for life funds which resulted in record earnings of more than $90 million as compared to a previous all-time record of less than $16 million.

He also slashed the budget for the operation of the treasurer's office more than 30% and cut the payroll by 50%. For the first time in history he used the deposit of state funds to help depressed areas of the state and to aid the economy in disaster areas after floods, tornadoes, major fires and crop failures.

The candidate has served as a member of the Judges Retirement System and the Illinois Public Aid Commission, as well as treasurer of the Toll Highway Commission and the Illinois Building Authority. As the only Republican member of the State Electoral Board, in 1965, Scott won a series of major legal decisions in both the Illinois and United States Supreme Courts which resulted in the successful reappointment of the Illinois State Legislature.

He is a veteran of the U. S. Navy Air Corps, has served as elder of the Presbyterian Church, a trustee of MacMurray College in Jacksonville, and chairman of the Evanston. He is a member of both the Illinois State Bar Association and the Federal Bar Association and has been active in the Illinois Bankers Association and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

Supreme Court Clerk

Miss Fannie Jones of East St. Louis, a teacher for 22 years, is seeking election on the Democratic ticket as clerk of the Illinois Supreme Court as the first Negro ever to run on a state ticket for a major public office. It is her first bid for public office.

Miss Jones is an elementary school teacher at Franklin school in East St. Louis. She was graduated from high school in East St. Louis and attended Tuskegee Institute in Alabama where she obtained a Bachelor of Science Degree in Education.

FANNIE G. JONES

She took advance study at St. Louis University, the University of Illinois where she currently is working toward her master's degree in Education, and Southern Illinois University where she participated last year as administrator-teacher in human relations during a summer workshop.

Miss Jones is camp director of the New Salem District Association Youth Camp at Pere Marquette State Park, a post she has held for 21 years. She formerly worked for two years as a clerk-typist and mail checker with the Procurement Service of the U. S. Civil Service Commission in Washington, D. C.

She served from 1965 through last year as head teacher of Project Head Start, served as a demonstration teacher in phonics reading workshops, and as a remedial reading teacher in the summer reading clinic in East St. Louis School district 180.

She has been active in many educational and character organizations for youth, as well as with a number of Baptist organizations.

Miss Jones' opponent is Justin Taft of Rochester who has held numerous offices in Sangamon county, and who is basing his campaign primarily on his experience in county government.

Taft is a former aide to Sangamon county Sheriff Ed Ryan and was among witnesses to appear before hearings of the Illinois Crime Commission in Springfield.

He is a member of an pioneer Illinois family that settled on the present Taft farm 1828. He is the fifth generation to live on the original farm.

He has served as township supervisor, probate clerk and associate clerk of Sangamon county. He is 44.

Record Number of Voters in County

Madison county has an all-time record of nearly 120,000 voters eligible to cast ballot in the Nov. 5 general election.

The figure still is unofficial, but cross-check of new registrations and changes is nearing completion and the total should be reached, according to County Clerk Eulalia Hotz.

In the June primary election, the number of registered voters in the county was 115,704. For the November 1966 general election, there were 112,486 registered voters in the county.

Melvin Price Seeking 13th Term in Congress Race

Cong. Melvin Price of East St. Louis, incumbent Democratic representative in the U. S. House since 1944, is seeking his 13th consecutive term in what is considered as a one-sided race against John Gohrie, an O'Fallon building contractor who tried unsuccessfully to unseat Price in 1966 and in 1964.

Price and Gohrie are seeking election within the 24th Congressional District which includes all of St. Clair county and 11 townships of Madison county (including all of the Quad-City area).

The Madison county area of the district includes Granite City, Venice, Nameoli and Chouteau townships in the Quad-Cities, and Wood River, Fort Russell, Edwardsville, Collinsville, Pin Oak, Jarvis and St. Jacob townships of Madison county.

Melvin Price, 63, of East St. Louis, has served as congressman of the 24th District for 24 years and is seeking re-election on the Democratic ticket to his 13th consecutive two-year term in the House of Representatives.

Congressman Price was elected to the House in 1944 while he was serving as an enlisted man in the U. S. Army during world war II, and since has risen to ranking member of both the Joint House-Senate Committee on Atomic Energy and the House Armed Services Committee.

He is considered a liberal and is recognized as one of the top experts in the country on use of atomic energy.

Price represents the 24th Congressional district which is made up of St. Clair county and part of Madison county, including the Quad-City area. Formerly known as the 22nd District, the area once was considerably larger but was

The campaign for election of two Madison county members of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district, upon which only voters in the Quad-City area cast ballots, has added considerable spice to the Nov. 5 election campaign at the local level. Several major campaign de-

Congressional District on the Republican ticket. Guthrie, 34, was defeated in the 1966 general election in his first bid to unseat incumbent Cong. Melvin Price of East St. Louis.

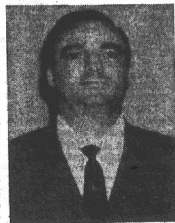

Guthrie is active in civic and political affairs in St. Clair county and has served as precinct committeeman and a member of the St. John grade school board of education. He is a member of the Belleville Carpenters Union Local 433.

Guthrie, who also served in the Air Force, is a native of Athens, Ohio, where he attended school. He also attended Ohio State University and Belleville Junior College. He was stationed with the Air Force in the early 1950's at Scott Air Force Base, and he and his wife decided to stay in the area following his discharge. He is married and has one son and one daughter.

As a result, the Democratic incumbents picked up the ball to challenge the St. Clair county Democratic candidates with a promise that the levee board payroll would not be approved by them—and there would be "the devil to pay"—if the levee board payroll for October includes election workers. The payroll will be approved Nov. 6.

Edward Werner of Granite City is seeking election to one of two trusteeships of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district on the Republican ticket. Werner never has held public office before and this is his first bid to an elective position. He was nominated as a Republican candidate without opposition in the June 11 GOP primary. Werner is a native of Granite City and was graduated from Granite City high school. He was employed for 19 years at

He is Republican committeeman of Precinct 5 in Granite City and has been a member of Teamsters and Chauffeurs' Union Local 535 for the past 19 years. He is married. He and Mrs. Werner live at 2023 Madison avenue. Andrew Jess Parks, 64, a resident of Granite City for 46 years, is seeking election as a trustee of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district on the Republican ticket.

Parks, who lives at 2536 Jerden avenue, is a retired millwright at Granite City Steel Co. where he was employed 43 years. He served as chairman of the grievance committee of USWA union local 67 for 20 years, and as treasurer of the Steelworkers Club. He has been Republican committeeman of Precinct 13 for 20 years.

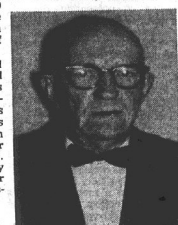

Parks was an unsuccessful candidate for a levee board trusteeship in 1948 and also was a candidate for assistant supervisor. He served for 16 years under former GOP Governors Dwight H. Green and William G. Stratton as a state inspector of race track mutual operations. He is a member of the Trinity Methodist church and a member of the church's board of trustees.

ANDREW J. PARKS

Parks, a native of Iron county, Mo., is married and has one daughter.

Joseph A. Grant, 2104 Garfield avenue, is seeking re-election on the Democratic ticket to his second four-year term as a member of the board of the East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

Grant is a retired vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Boilermakers with which he was associated for 23 years. Earlier this year he was honored by Illinois state officials for steering the enactment of the State Boiler Safety Code, and for serving as chairman of the State Board of Boiler Rules since 1951. He is a member of the Tri-

City Regional Port Authority Board, a post he has held since inception of the port authority in 1959. He also served as a member of the Madison County Mental Health Board.

Grant is a member of Boilermakers Local 365, the Granite City Elks Lodge and American Legion Post 33.

He is married and has one daughter.

William "Mike" Ebersoldt, 55, incumbent member of the five-man board of trustees of the East Side Levee and Sanitary district, is seeking re-election to his second four-year term on the Democratic ticket.

Ebersoldt, who is also city clerk of Venice, a post he has held since 1954, is closely aligned with the Madison-Venice Democratic organization. He was appointed city clerk in 1954 to succeed the late Walter R. Canner and was elected to the office in 1957. He has been re-elected for each succeeding term.

He is a native and lifelong resident of Venice, his family moving there more than 70 years ago. He is married, has three children and lives at 804 Third street.

Ebersoldt is a member of the Venice Methodist Church, a 29-year member of the Venice Lodge of Odd Fellows, a 27-year member of Masonic Lodge 885 of Granite City, Mississippi Valley Consistory, 32nd degree; East St. Louis Shrine, Ainal Temple of East St. Louis and the Tri-City Shrine Club.

He also is a member of the Terminal Compass Club, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for 31 years, 16 of them as an officer; a charter member of the Venice Lions Club, is vice-president of the Venice Crippled Children's Organization and secretary of the Venice Homecoming and Memorial Association.

Ebersoldt is chairman of the Venice City Organization, audi-

Con-Con Proposal on Nov. 5 Ballot Takes Majority of Votes to be Approved

Probably more interest than ever before is being shown this year in a proposal for a Constitutional Convention call, which is among three special state propositions that will be put up to the voters in the Nov. 5 general election.

The Constitutional Convention call will be presented on a blue ballot and will require only a "yes" or "no" vote on calling the convention. A favorable vote on the proposal will in no way change the present constitution.

Backers of the convention call, who have been growing in number during recent weeks, point out that all the people are being asked to do is to approve a convention call, so that constitutional reforms can be debated, put into final form and then submitted to the voters who have the final approval in any case.

The convention call is backed by Maurice Scott, director of the Taxpayers Federation of Illinois; the Illinois Manufacturers Association and the United Automobile Workers. Other supporting organizations include the Better Government Association, the Chicago Urban League, the State Chamber of Commerce, Illinois Municipal League, Illinois City Managers Association, League of Women Voters, Young Democrat and Young Republican groups and many others.

Has Much Support

Mrs. Bary North, executive secretary of the Illinois Committee for Constitutional Convention, says she is extremely confident the proposal will be approved, and said she believes that for every group against the call, there are 50 that favor it.

To obtain approval the proposal must receive a majority of those voting in the general election. This means that if one million voted in the election and the convention call received two million in favor and one million against, the proposal would be approved.

This was the case in 1934, last year in which there has been a vote on a convention call. The yes vote in that election was 691,021 in favor and 389,879 against. But another 1,882,292 persons voted in the election, however, without balloting on the constitutional convention call. Those who did not vote on the proposal at all actually decided the issue. A number of questions about the conduct of the convention, if one is approved, are still to be answered. Among them is the question as to whether members of the legislature can be delegates to the convention; an issue that may have to be settled in court.

Date To Be Fixed

In the event the convention call is approved, two delegates would be elected from each of the 58 state senatorial districts. The election of the delegates as well as the date for opening the convention would be up to the legislature.

Once it is organized the convention body can make its own rules, and establish its own procedure. But it can only recommend changes in the constitution and whatever it decides must be ratified by the people in another referendum.

The convention would have the option of presenting the voters with one, single document revising the constitution, or it could offer piecemeal changes, allowing the people to vote on each of them separately.

The body also has the option of ordering a special election on the approval of constitutional changes, or ordering a referendum in conjunction with a regular election.

In the constitutional convention of 1919 the delegates ordered an election Dec. 12, 1922, little more than a month after the regular election, but the factor of a special vote did not help. The voters rejected the proposed revisions by 521,388 to 165,294.

Amendment to State Bank Act Has Wide Approval

A referendum proposal to amend the Illinois Banking Act to give state-chartered banks equality with nationally chartered banks in establishing branches in foreign countries will be presented to voters in the Nov. 5 general election.

A favorable vote on the amendment proposal is supported by a large number of Illinois citizens and organizations who contend it is essential that Illinois enterprises have full international banking services available to them.

The proposition will be contained in a pink ballot requiring only an "X" by the voter at either the yes or no box.

The amendment permits state chartered banks to establish branches in foreign countries, providing on-location service for customers who sell Illinois goods abroad. Nationally chartered banks in Illinois already may do this.

The amendment is supported by Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro, W. Russell Arrington, president pro tempore of the Illinois Senate, Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry, City Club of Chicago, Civic Federation, Illinois Bankers Association, Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development, Illinois Manufacturers Association, Illinois Retail Merchants Association and the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

Voters To Elect Three U. of I. Trustees

Quadrant and Madison counties, in addition to holding regular state, district and county candidates in the general election Nov. 5 also will select three members of the University of Illinois board of trustees.

The names of three Democratic candidates and three Republican candidates will be included on the regular ballot containing national, state, district and county candidates. Trustees are elected to six-year terms.

Candidates for the trusteeships are selected by alumni selection committees — one Democrat and one Republican — which are named by the U. of I. Alumni Association. Selection is made through a screening process that began early last year, at least six months before the state party conventions were held.

Those running for six-year terms are:

Democrats:

Timothy J. Swain, 42, a native of Chicago and now a resident of Bloomington, where he is manager of the Bloomington Broadcasting Co., vice-president of the Daily Pantagraph and a trustee of the Daily Pantagraph Foundation. He is a 1931 graduate of the University of Virginia.

Ives attended Air Force service schools in this country and abroad between 1951 and 1955 and further supplemented his education by attending night courses at Illinois Wesleyan University and participating in 1963 in a summer seminar of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration.

His father, Ernest L. Ives, served 30 years as an American Foreign Service officer and diplomatic counselor. His mother, Elizabeth S. Ives, was the daughter of Lewis G. Stevenson, former secretary of Adlai E. Stevenson I, congressman, assistant postmaster general and vice-president of the U.S.

Mrs. Frances Best Watkins, 69, of Chicago, a 1921 U. of I. graduate who was first elected to the board of trustees in 1946 and served three six-year terms. She was a candidate with the Democratic slate defeated in 1958.

On Alumni Board

Following her graduation from the U. of I., Mrs. Watkins worked until 1925 as an editorial assistant with the U. of I. Press. She is a member of the U. of I. Alumni Association Board of Directors, the Chicago Illinois Club and the Cook County Hospital School of Nursing board of directors.

Kenney E. Williamson, 66, semi-retired Peoria insurance executive named last December by Gov. Otto Kerner to fill the vacancy created by the death of Wayne A. Johnston. A veteran of 18 years at a trustee, Williamson first was appointed to fill a vacancy on the board in 1939 and thereafter was elected to six-year terms in 1944, 1954 and 1960. Like Mrs. Watkins, he was defeated in 1958.

He has served five years as president of the trustees, is active in the Alumni Association and belongs to the University Club and the Peoria Illinois Club.

Republicans:

Has Cornell Doctorate

Earl M. Hughes, 51, of Woodstock, a 1929 U. of I. graduate who also holds a doctorate in marketing and farm management from Cornell University. He has been on the board of trustees since 1956. He has served on a number of educational boards and committees and on many agricultural groups, working during 1954-55 as a consultant to the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, and from 1955 to 1957 as administrator of the Commodity Stabilization Service and executive vice-president of the Commodity Credit Corp.

Now operator of Hughes Farms at Woodstock, he grows hybrid seed corn and certified small grains, operates a dairy herd and raises beef cattle and hogs.

Russell "Ruck" Steger, 42, of suburban Chicago, a 1950 U. of I. honor graduate who earned eight letters in football and basketball while a student. A member of the U. of I. Athletic Alumni Committee, Steger also belongs to the Illinois Club of Chicago, "11" Men's Association, Exmoore Country Club, the University Club of Chicago, the Executives Club of Chicago.

GC Precinct 21 Poll is Changed

Precinct 21 polling place for the Nov. 5 general election has been relocated since the list originally was compiled, Granite City Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer announced.

New location of the poll is Martha's Silhouette Beauty Salon, 3300 Terrace lane. Balloting originally was scheduled at a polling place located at 1521 Clark street, Hagnauer said.

Demo Rally Wednesday At State Park Place

A Democratic rally featuring school bus candidates for county offices will be held at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the State Park Place community house, 3201 Harvard place.

The rally is being sponsored by the State Park Place Democratic Club of which Mrs. Joanne Economy is president. She said refreshments will be served.

Loman and Brown to Be on IAPD Program

The Illinois Association of Park Districts will hold its annual conference jointly with the Illinois Park and Recreation Society in St. Charles this year. The meeting will be held at Pleasant Run Lodge, Nov. 20-22.

Berry Loman, a commissioner of the Granite City park district, will preside over a panel entitled "Financial Problems in Parks and Recreation in Illinois."

Harold E. Brown, director of parks and recreation, will be the guest speaker with "Special Facility Operations."

This annual meeting attracts more than 600 parks and recreation leaders from Illinois and its four neighboring states of Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri and Indiana.

Under a new law approved by the Illinois legislature in a special session last July, Madison county will elect a new—and a fourth—circuit judge in the Nov. 5 general election.

The fourth judgeship was created because of the heavy volume of court activity in the Third judicial circuit which is made up of all of Madison county and part of Bond county.

Candidates for the judgeship were nominated in county Democratic and Republican judicial conventions called specially for the purpose in August.

William Beatty, Granite City attorney, is the Democratic candidate for circuit judge. He is opposed by John B. Coppinger of Alton, the Republican candidate.

John B. Coppinger of Alton, son of the late John B. Coppinger, was appointed Madison county's first probate judge in 1957.

ing this time he graduated from the Army's Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

He is a member of the American Bar Association, Illinois State Bar Association, Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, Madison County Bar Association, American Judicature Society and the Alton-Wood River Bar Association.

He is married and lives at 2320 Edwards street, Alton. He has two children.

Coppinger now is a partner in the law firm of Coppinger and Carter at Alton.

William L. Beatty, Granite City attorney, is the Democratic candidate for election as Madison county's fourth circuit judge, a post created by an act of the Illinois legislature last July. Beatty was chosen by convention of Madison county Democrats.

Beatty has been a practicing attorney in Granite City since 1950 and is a former Granite City city attorney and assistant state's attorney of Madison county. He and his law partners represent a number of labor organizations in the area.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS ON THE PROPOSITION OF CALLING A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

The Seventy-fifth General Assembly of the State of Illinois, by a vote of two-thirds of the members of each House thereof, passed a joint resolution for the submission of the question of calling a Constitutional Convention to the voters of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1968, which joint resolution is in words and figures as follows:

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2

RESOLVED, By the Senate of the Seventy-fifth General Assembly of the State of Illinois, the House of Representatives concurring herein, that a convention is necessary to revise, alter or amend the Constitution of this State, and that the question of the calling of such a convention shall be submitted to the voters of this State at the next general election, as provided in Article XIV of the present Constitution.

Adopted by the Senate, April 18, 1967.

Concurred in by the House of Representatives, May 16, 1967.

By virtue of said joint resolution the question of calling a convention for the purpose of preparing a revision, alteration or amendments of the Constitution, as provided by Article XIV thereof, must be submitted to the voters of the State of Illinois at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1968. If a majority of the electors voting at the election vote for such a convention, it is required by said Article XIV of the Constitution that the General Assembly at its next session shall pass an Act calling such convention, designate the place of meeting, fix the day and the hour of the same and make provision for and fix the pay of the delegates to the same, together with the other necessary expenses of such convention. It is provided by said Article XIV that said convention shall consist of double the number of members of the Senate to be elected in the same manner, at the same places and in the same districts.

The convention must meet within three months after such election, prepare such revision, alteration or amendments as may be deemed necessary and the same must be submitted to the electors for their ratification or rejection at an election called by the convention for that purpose, not less than two nor more than six months after the adjournment of the convention.

The question of calling a Constitutional Convention, to carry must receive the affirmative votes of a majority of the electors at the general election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1968.

The question calling a Constitutional Convention shall be submitted upon a separate blue ballot, as provided by section 16-6 of "An act concerning elections," approved May 11, 1943, as amended, and shall be in the following form:

YES	For the calling of a constitutional convention

Among four ballots that will be given Madison county voters when they go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 5, will be a small white ballot for voting in the Natural Resources Development Bond referendum, one of three special state propositions.

The ballot will carry the proposal for issuance of $1 billion in bonds for air and water pollution control, recreational development and for conservation, development and improvement of the state's water resources. The bonds would be issued over a 12-year period to set the basic framework of a continuous program to cover the next 50 years, according to Gene Graves, chairman of the Natural Resources Development board and director of the Illinois Department of Business and Economic Development.

The bond proposal is being submitted under a revised legislative act adopted last July after the original proposal drew opposition from many sources, primarily to the manner in which the money would be handled and expenditures approved.

Legislature Controls Funds
The new act grants the Illi-

Illinois General Assembly broadened and final control to coordinate and authorize the spending of the bond issue proceeds, so that bond retirement payments will be included in general state fiscal planning.

The General Assembly also is given final authority on establishing priorities and determining when and if and for what projects bond proceeds shall be spent. The revised act also eliminated loans to private companies or corporations, and raises the maximum interest rate from 4% to 5% to make the bonds marketable.

The bond issue would make available funds for air and water pollution controls through financing of sewage treatment plants and sewage systems.

It also would finance flood control projects and provide conservation authorities with means for development of an outstanding system of recreational centers connected by linear parkways. Graves noted that within the past 30 years, more than $100 millions in flood control projects have been recommended, but no funds ever were available to carry them out.

Plan Waterway Expansion
Bond proceeds would permit expansion of the state's system of waterways for navigational purposes to provide both transportation and recreation areas. Graves pointed out that many local communities in the state are eager to solve air and water problems, but are unable to proceed with such projects because of a lack of funds. In

Panel to Review Area Economic Growth Trends

"Is the economy of the big state metropolitan region growing faster or slower than the national average or is it stagnating?" will be the question answered by four economists and planners at a monthly meeting of the American Institute of Planners, St. Louis Section.

It is the second of a series of ten meetings being sponsored by the St. Louis Section of AIAA in an effort to focus the attendance of concerned agencies on the various regional forces and issues affecting metropolitan planning.

many cases communities are prohibited by constitutional and statutory debt limits from issuing general obligation bonds to pay for treatment facilities. The state bond issue was planned to provide the state with funds to aid the communities.

omy will be Professor Richard Muth, chairman, Department of Economics, Washington University, and three panelists; Dr. Leroy J. Grossman, economist at Dardick, Grossman, Heath and Associates; Professor Al Khan, SIU Public Administration and Metropolitan Affairs Program; and James McDonald, chief economist, East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

The panel will try to determine if there are emerging trends which would indicate this region has any unique advantages or disadvantages for industry. At the same time they will try to identify the potentials of the region's specific growth industries and estimate their growth.

The 21 professional organizations co-sponsoring the program include the Southwestern Illinois sized "TB is still a real threat to the health of all citizens of Madison county. Forty new cases of tuberculosis were reported in our county the first 40 weeks of this year, and 242 new cases in our state.

"One new case here each week is far too many. We must continue our efforts to wipe out TB and to control other respiratory diseases. The funds raised in our Christmas Seal campaign help do just that, but we need volunteers to help get the Campaign off the ground."

The TB Christmas Seal Campaign starts Nov. 12, but before that date Christmas Seal letters must be prepared for mailing to some 65,000 families throughout Madison county.

"Volunteers who assist in the Christmas Seal Campaign,

Dorsey added, "are giving the citizens of this county a very valuable Christmas gift: The promise of better health for themselves and for their families."

SPECIMEN BALLOT

I Eudalia Hotz, County Clerk of Madison County, Illinois, do hereby certify that the following is a full, true and correct copy of the Official Ballot to be voted in the General Election, November 5, 1968, on the Proposed Natural Resources Development Bond Act Proposition.

Evelina Hotz
County Clerk of Madison County, Illinois

Shall the Natural Resources Development Bond Act enacted by the 75th General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $1,000,000,000 and issue bonds to that amount as provided in such Act, and shall the State of Illinois levy annually a direct tax sufficient to pay the interest on and to discharge the principal of such bonds in accordance with that Act, which Act provides that, to the extent that funds are available in the General Revenue Fund of the State, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from that fund to the Natural Resources Development Bond Retirement and Interest Fund sufficient to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by that Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred, then the appropriate officers in fixing the rate of that direct annual tax shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in that amount?	YES

TO THE VOTERS AT THE GENERAL ELECTION TO BE HELD THROUGHOUT THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1968.

Pursuant to House Bill No. 2784 passed as an Act of the 75th General Assembly of the State of Illinois, a proposition is to be submitted as a public measure to be voted on at the general election on November 5, 1968, and the proposition so submitted will appear on a separate white ballot, except that where voting machines or electronic voting systems are in use, such voting machines or electronic voting systems may be used upon such proposition.

PROPOSED NATURAL RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT BOND ACT

Shall the Illinois Resources Development Fund Act enacted by the 73rd General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $1,000,000,000 and incur liabilities for that amount as provided in such Act, and shall the Illinois State Treasurer be authorized to pay out of the State Treasury the sum of $1,000,000,000 in full for the purpose of satisfying the obligations of the State under the said Act and to discharge the principal of such bonds in accordance with that Act, which fund the said Illinois Resources Development Fund, as authorized by the said Act, and to the extent that such funds are available for such purposes, the said Act provides that, to the extent that such funds are available for such purposes, the said Board of Reinvestment and Interest Fund is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from that fund to the said Illinois Resources Development Fund, and to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by that Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred, the appropriate officers in financial management of that fund shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in their amount?	YES
Shall the Illinois Resources Development Fund Act enacted by the 73rd General Assembly, become effective and the State of Illinois contract a debt of $1,000,000,000 and incur liabilities for that amount as provided in such Act, and shall the Illinois State Treasurer be authorized to pay out of the State Treasury the sum of $1,000,000,000 in full for the purpose of satisfying the obligations of the State under the said Act and to discharge the principal of such bonds in accordance with that Act, which fund the said Illinois Resources Development Fund, as authorized by the said Act, and to the extent that such funds are available for such purposes, the said Act provides that, to the extent that such funds are available for such purposes, the said Board of Reinvestment and Interest Fund is authorized to direct the transfer of funds from time to time from that fund to the said Illinois Resources Development Fund, and to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds provided for by that Act, and to the extent that money is so transferred, the appropriate officers in financial management of that fund shall make proper allowance in the amount of money so transferred in reduction of the taxes to be levied and such tax shall be abated in their amount?	NO

Pursuant to the statutes of the State of Illinois in such case made and provided, the following Statement and Suggestions has been prepared for publication and posting, as being necessary to afford a proper understanding of the proposition to be voted on.

STATEMENT AND SUGGESTIONS

Scope of the Program. Proceeds of the bond issue will be used for the acquisition and development of outdoor recreational facilities, for the control and prevention of water and air pollution for conservation and management of water resources or for flood control or for any combination of such purposes.

Terms, Interest and Sale of Bonds. The bonds are to be fully retired within 25 years of the date of issue. They are to bear interest at a rate of not more than 5% per year. The issuance, sale and retirement of the bonds will be under the supervision and control of a Bond Board consisting of the Governor, the State Treasurer, and the Attorney General. The bonds are to be sold, after newspaper publication of notice, to the "highest and best bidders, for not less than their par value, upon sealed bids."

Payments to be Made. Payments on the principal and interest of the bonds are to be made from a Natural Gas Development Bond Redemption and Interest Fund in the State Treasury, as provided in the Act.

In order that this Bond Fund contain sufficient moneys to meet the required payments, the General Assembly is authorized to direct the transfer, from time to time, of State funds from the General Revenue Fund to this Bond Fund. The amount transferred shall be determined by a majority vote of the General Assembly should it fail to direct such transfer of funds, then Section 7 of the Act, which levies a property tax upon all real and personal property in this State subject to the taxation, will be in full force and effect. The tax so levied, however, shall be paid into this Bond Fund. If the proceeds of the principal and of the interest on this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund, then the said Bond Fund will have sufficient means to meet the required payments have been transferred from the General Fund to this Bond Fund, or is available from other sources of revenue, then no tax levy will be necessary and no further bonds need be issued.

The proceeds of the principal and of the interest on this tax, if levied, shall be paid into this Bond Fund.

Referendum Requirement. The Act providing for this bond issue will go into full force and effect only if a majority of the votes cast for members of the General Assembly at the November, 1968 election.

Approved this 31st day of July, A.D. 1968.

WILLIAM G. CLARK, Attorney General.

PAUL POWELL, Secretary of State.

SIU-SW Prof is Preparing Curriculum for Retarded Children

Mark Tucker, faculty member at the Southwest campus of Southern Illinois University, is writing an entire sequence of curricular materials for the mentally retarded.

His first project, now at the publishers, is a textbook, "Curriculum and Methods for the Educable Mentally Retarded."

Probably the biggest innovation in the book is the experimental curriculum. The curriculum is divided into 12 levels of school experience, based on results of research. The age group considered ranges from four to 18.

In preparation is a reading series designed for the educable mentally retarded. The series is intended to teach reading in a sequential manner.

A resident of Belleville, Tucker is a professor in the SIU-SW Education Division.

Publisher of the book will be Fearon Publishing Company of Palo Alto. The text is expected to be off the press next summer.

More About Labor Problems

Representatives from both union and company met with U. S. mediators last Thursday, but broke up without progress. However negotiators agreed to resume talks next Friday.

American Steel Foundries continued production. A new steelworkers contract at Alton Steel Industries was consummated earlier this month.

Union representatives of Boiler-makers Local 530 at Geneseo, Ill., scheduled for a new contract after the steelworkers' agreement is completed. The Boiler-makers union represents about 350 employees at GSI, according to Clarence Propps, president of the local.

3rd Quarter Sales Down for GSI

General Steel Industries, Inc., had consolidated net sales of $78,966,459 in the nine months ended Sept. 30, with earnings of $1.21 per share. This compares with sales of $88,785,813 and earnings of $1.11 in the same period last year, W. Ashley Gray Jr., GSI president announced Friday.

For the third quarter of 1968 GSI reports sales of $19,192,720 and earnings of 25 cents per share compared with sales of $22,769,102 and earnings of 24 cents in the third quarter of 1967.

"Third quarter sales were lower than expected due to rescheduling of car deliveries from St. Louis Car Division and postponement of shipments from the Castings Division into 1969. While this will result in reduction of 1968 earnings, sales and earnings in 1969 will be benefited by the deferral of deliveries and we are optimistic about the outlook for next year," Gray said.

He said that delivery of both New York transit cars and high-speed commuter cars for New Jersey service was delayed because of design changes. "In addition serious production difficulties were encountered in manufacturing the commuter cars. These problems are now being overcome and deliveries of both orders are expected to be on a regular basis before the end of this year."

At the Castings Division Gray said recent substantial orders for flat cars and other rail equipment will make for improved levels of operations following a period when rail equipment orders have lagged seriously.

At Sept. 30, backlog of orders was at $125,150,000 compared with $95,640,000 the year before.

Hit-Run Crash

The parked car of Dudley Collins, 146 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, was damaged at the front at 12:50 a.m. Friday when it was struck by a hit-run driver. Police said Collins' car was parked in front of his apartment on Klein street when the incident occurred. Collins reported and the hit-run car fled south on Klein street.

Crash on Madison Ave.

Autos driven by Carroll Chalmers of East Alton and William Bishop of Fieldon, Ill., were involved in a collision about 11 p.m. Thursday in the 3000 block of Madison avenue. Police said both autos were traveling north and the Chalmers auto was changing lanes.

Local Leaders Named

Organizational Meeting for March of Dimes Tomorrow

An organizational meeting for the January March of Dimes fund-raising drive will be held at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Montclair Bowl in Edwardsville. It was announced this week by the Madison county campaign director, D. Dean Bridwell of Edwardsville.

The director also announced local campaign leaders as Mrs. Gerald (Shirley) Parnley, 3221 Willow avenue, and Mrs. F. B. (Donna) Diomedea, 2657 Cleveland blvd., Granite City co-chairmen; Mrs. Charles (Julia) Voloski, 1610 Seventh street, and Mrs. Elmer (Jean) Voegeli, 1809 Fourth street, Madison co-chairmen; Mrs. Hilda James, 109 Weaver street, Madison, West Madison area; and Milton Morris, 1300 McKinley avenue, Venice, Venice chairman.

Attending tomorrow evening's kickoff meeting, in preparation for the campaign drive which is traditionally conducted during the month of January, will be directors of the Madison County Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes and all local chairmen and staff workers, Bridwell said. Light refreshments will be served.

Will Set Procedures
The campaign chairman noted that during the meeting the procedures set by the National Foundation will be outlined, but he stressed that success of the drive in each community is left solely to leaders in their own area," Bridwell explained. He said there will not be an outside speaker at Tuesday's planning meeting as the evening is to be devoted to answering questions, discussing proposals and reviewing last year's successful drive.

However, Bridwell explained, the names of patients may be returned to the active file, even from 20 years back, whenever the need arises, and the chapter must hold itself in readiness to assist regardless of previous assistance or prior de-termination of status.

Annual Report

A report on the Madison County Chapter activities for the fiscal year of June 1, 1967, to May 31, 1968, and for a portion of the current year June 1 to Oct. 1, 1968, follows:

Active polio cases, 76; inactive polio cases, 781; polio cases receiving treatment or assistance from June 1, 1967, to May 31, 1968, 17; amount expended in that period, $1230.

The number of polio cases receiving treatment or assistance from June 1 to Oct. 1 this year was five and the amount expended was $376.

In addition, the county chapter awarded 21 Health Study Scholarship in 1967 amounting to $3000 and 20 scholarship grants given this year, totaling $3150.

Birth defect grants, provided to eight families between June of last year and May 31, 1968, totaled $1268, while three birth defect grants, amounting to $445, were provided between June 1 and Oct. 1, 1968.

The county chapter also contributed $2000 from local funds to the Area Birth Defect Center at St. Louis Children's Hospital, Bridwell said. He pointed out that patients who have received no treatment within the past four years are temporarily placed on the inactive file list. This change may be due to correction of defects, maturity, improvement of condition, financial independence or similar cause.

However, Bridwell explained, the names of patients may be returned to the active file, even from 20 years back, whenever the need arises, and the chapter must hold itself in readiness to assist regardless of previous assistance or prior de-termination of status.

The county chairman also noted that 25% of funds collected through the annual fund-raising drive are contributed to medical and scientific research programs; 37 1/2% remains with the county chapter; and 37 1/2% is allocated to the National Foundation Headquarters.

He explained that from the quota sent to the national organization, the Foundation holds itself in readiness to assist local chapters with extreme and deserving polio and birth defect cases when local funds are not adequate.

Mrs. Thompson, 94, Dies in Alabama

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Keller, 3217 Davis street, have returned from Centre, Ala., where they attended the funeral Thursday of Mrs. Keller's mother, Mrs. Ella Thompson, 94, who died earlier in the week after a short illness due to pneumonia.

The services were held in a Centre funeral home and burial was in the cemetery there. Surviving, beside the daughter here, is another daughter, Mrs. Cass Dobson of Anniston, Ala., a son, Carl Thompson, of Spokane, Wash., one grandchild and four great-grandchildren.

Auto Tires Slashed

The right front and rear tires on the 1962 auto of Barbara Johnston, No. 6 Hanson drive, Arlington Heights, were slashed Thursday night when the car was parked on the lot at the Rose Bowl restaurant.

County Liquor License

A county liquor license has been issued to Chester Wayne Jones for the Curve Inn Tavern at 2618 Missouri avenue by the Madison county liquor commission at Edwardsville.

Moose Lodge Halloween Parade Judges Announced

Judges for the Moose Lodge annual Halloween parade at 8 p.m. Thursday were announced today by the parade chairman, Edward Chastain.

The judges will be: Capt. Harold Thomas of the Salvation Army; Edwin Reiske, president of the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council; and Third Ward Alderman Clyde Boyd.

Hundreds of costumed children and adults are being asked to gather at Niedringhaus side of the city hall in advance of the start of the parade for assignment of numbers needed for judging.

Cash awards will be made at the conclusion of the parade with $5 to go to first place winners, $5 for second prize and $3 for third place. In addition, $2 consolation prizes will be awarded. The prize money is being furnished by downtown merchants.

Judging will be in three categories—"Best dressed," "most original" and "most comical." The parade route from the city hall will be east on Niedringhaus avenue to State street, south to 19th street, west on 19th to Niedringhaus and east on Niedringhaus to return to the city hall.
